THE ANDERSON FAMILY FOOTBALL COMPLEX

Thanks largely to the generosity of two KU families, the Kivistos and the Andersons, work is in progress on the $31-million Anderson Family Football Complex. It is being built adjacent to Memorial Stadium and will be completed prior to the 2008 season. HNTB of Kansas City, Mo., is the architect of record. Turner Construction of Kansas City, Mo. is the contractor. The field in Memorial Stadium was named Kivisto Field in 2006.

To The Media

The 2007 football media guide has been produced to assist the media in its coverage of the Jayhawks, so please take a moment to look through the media information on the following pages for services available and guidelines of the KU media relations office. Additional information is available by contacting the media relations office at (785) 864-3420 or through KU's website at kuathletics.com.

Weekly Press Release

Each Monday morning a complete release previewing the upcoming game and reviewing the season will be available on kuathletics.com. The release will also be e-mailed to media requesting this service each Monday morning.

Weekly Press Conference

Mark Mangino will conduct a weekly press conference, followed by selected players, each Tuesday during the season. The press conferences are held at noon in the John Hadl Auditorium located on the first floor of the Wagnon Student-Athlete Center. Coach Mangino will speak at noon followed by the players. Lunch will be provided following the interview sessions.

Interviews

Contact the media relations office for all player or coach interview requests. All interviews with players will take place after Mark Mangino's press conference between 12:30 and 1:15 p.m. on Tuesdays or after practice on Wednesday.

To request players for the weekly press conference, media should contact the media relations office by noon each preceding Monday at (785) 864-3420.

Out-of-town media wishing to interview Kansas players should also contact the media relations office by noon, Monday, to arrange for players to call them between 12:30 and 1 p.m. CST each Tuesday.

With the exception of postgame interviews, players will not participate in live radio interviews. Players will be available for taped interviews when scheduled through the media relations office.

Home and cell phone numbers for players will not be provided and players have been instructed not to accept calls from media without prior notice from the media relations office. Please do not contact a player or coach without scheduling the interview through the media relations office.

Practice

Media members, photographers and videographers from recognized media outlets may shoot and attend KU's practices each Tuesday for the first 30 minutes of practice. Please contact Mike Strauss in the Kansas media relations office by Monday at noon if you plan to attend. No practices will be open to the public unless previously announced. When at practice, media members must stay at the end of the practice field at all times unless escorted by a member of the media relations staff.

Big 12 Services

Teleconference

Every Monday throughout the season each Big 12 Conference head coach will be available via conference call from 10 a.m.-noon (Central). Each coach will be available for 10 minutes with KU Head Coach Mark Mangino in the leadoff slot beginning at 10 a.m. For the number to access the call, contact the Big 12 office at (469) 524-1000. The briefings originate from conference headquarters in Irving, Texas. The sessions are open only to the media.

10:00 a.m. -- Mark Mangino, Kansas
10:10 a.m. -- Bob Stoops, Oklahoma
10:20 a.m. -- Mike Gundy, Oklahoma State
10:30 a.m. -- Ron Prince, Kansas State
10:40 a.m. -- Gary Pinkel, Missouri
10:50 a.m. -- Mike Leach, Texas Tech
11:00 a.m. -- Guy Morris, Baylor
11:10 a.m. -- Gene Chizek, Iowa State
11:20 a.m. -- Mack Brown, Texas
11:30 a.m. -- Dennis Franchione, Texas A&M
11:40 a.m. -- Dan Hawkins, Colorado
11:50 a.m. -- Bill Callahan, Nebraska

Weekly Video Highlights

This season, the Big 12 Conference will introduce an online video highlight service through CollegePressBox.tv. Highlights from each Big 12 school will be available for download shortly after each week's games, as well as pre-bowl season highlight packages. This service replaces the weekly satellite feed. Please contact the Big 12 Communications staff to obtain login information.

Big 12 … As Easy As 1 - 2

When referring to the Big 12 Conference, please remember the conference name (which is a registered trademark) should be listed as follows:

collegepressbox.com

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Big 12 Conference football. Media can access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Covering home games

Credentials

All credential requests should be directed to Mike Strauss via e-mail (mstrauss@ku.edu) or fax (785) 864-7944 by noon on Thursday prior to the game. Credentials requested after Monday of the game week will not be mailed. Instead, they will be available for pickup at a location agreeable to both parties. The Memorial Stadium Media Will Call distribution location is at the base of the elevator below the pressbox.

Getting To Memorial Stadium

From Kansas CIty (Kansas City International Airport), Take I-29 North to I-435 South toward Topeka. Merge onto I-70 West to Topeka. Use exit 202 (west exit) in Lawrence and drive south to ninth street. Take a left (east) on ninth street to Mississippi Street and turn right (south).

Game Week Media Schedule

Monday

9:30 a.m.	Weekly release, notes, depth chart and stats will be posted on kuathletics.com, and released via e-mail.
10 a.m.	Coach Mangino available via the Big 12 coaches teleconference.
Noon	Requests for Tuesday player interviews due to Mike Strauss in the media relations office.

Tuesday

Noon	Coach Mangino weekly press conference followed by selected players in the John Hadl Auditorium.
4 p.m.	Practice is open for the first 30 minutes for reporters and photographers.

Wednesday

Post-practice	Coach Mangino and selected players are available to the media.

Thursday

6:06 p.m.	Hawk Talk radio show is broadcast live on the Jayhawk Radio Network from the Holiday Inn in Lawrence.

Saturday

Postgame	Coach Mangino and selected players are available in the interview area adjacent to the KU lockerroom after the game.

Parking

Due to construction of the new endzone facility, media parking will be located in the Mississippi Street Parking Garage just south of the Kansas Union on the southeast side of Memorial Stadium. The garage is approximately two blocks away from the Stadium.

The Memorial Stadium pressbox contains 36 scholarship suites on two floors and more than 130 seats for members of the media on the main press level.

Pressbox

The Memorial Stadium pressbox is located on the west side of the stadium. Entrance is at the base of the elevator located just off of Maine Street. Level eight is reserved for the print media, home and visiting radio, home and visiting booths for coaches and athletics directors, along with game and scoreboard operations. Level nine serves as the photo deck and the location for television booths.

Pressbox Services

Packets with pregame information will be distributed in advance of kickoff on the day of the game. Play-by-play, quarter, halftime, and final statistics, coaches and player quote sheets, are all regular services on game day. A fax service is also provided upon request. Stat monitors with live, updated statistics are available throughout the print media level and in booths for electronic media. In addition, television monitors are also part of the fixtures in both home and visiting radio booths.

Wireless Internet

Complimentary access to wireless internet is available at Memorial Stadium and information about how to access it will be available in the pressbox.

Telephones

Writers wanting phone lines at their seat locations should contact the KU Telecommunications Office at (785) 864-9300 regarding installation. For specific line location, please list Mike Strauss as the contact. Allow at least two weeks notice prior to the game. There are several community telephones in the main working press area of the pressbox. These phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Photographers

Photo vests are available for accredited news media. Photographers may work from the sidelines in accordance with NCAA rules. The bench area is off limits to the media and to those taking photographs. Photographers must secure a sideline vest from a representative of the media relations office to have field access. The vests can be picked up in the press box. No sideline credentials will be issued to freelance photographers or radio station representatives except for the two originating networks.

Radio

The Jayhawk Radio Network provides one ISDN and two POTS lines, along with two dry pairs to the visitor's locker room, in the visiting radio booth. Visiting radio personnel should contact Bob Newton, producer/engineer of the Jayhawk Radio Network, at (785) 331-5787 regarding use of these lines. The visiting radio booth is located on level eight and provides seating for four at the window, plus an elevated engineer's area behind the announcers.

Postgame Interviews

Media may exit the pressbox with approximately five minutes remaining in the game to be escorted to a restricted area on the sidelines. The Kansas locker room, located on the pressbox side of the stadium (south end), is closed to the media. Coach Mangino and selected players will meet with the media in the interview area adjacent to the KU locker room after the cooling down period.

NCAA Guides and the Media

Media representatives should be aware of several NCAA rules that apply to student-athletes.

- Coaches and University officials cannot make comments on prospective student-athletes until they sign a National Letter of Intent. A coach cannot comment on a prospective student-athlete who verbally commits to an institution.
- Student-athletes are not allowed to write "diary" columns for print publications.
- Coaches and athletic staff are not permitted to write guest columns for publications.
- Student-athletes are not permitted to film or video "diary" stories for broadcast.
- Student-athletes are not allowed to endorse commercial products.
- Photographers cannot provide student-athletes with free photographs or slides.
- Student-athletes may not be used in advertisements or endorsements of products, including media-related publications.
- Student-athletes are not permitted to conduct interviews for 1-900 services.

University of Kansas football games can be heard exclusively on the Jayhawk Radio Network with Bob Davis and David Lawrence forming the broadcast team. Nate Bukaty will report from the sidelines and handle the Crimson and Blue Line Show, which runs prior to each KU game, while also providing a postgame interview with head coach Mark Mangino. Josh Klingler hosts the Jayhawk Football Scoreboard Show following each broadcast. The Jayhawk Radio Network is operated by Jayhawk Sports Marketing, a division of Host Communications, Inc. with offices in Lawrence. The company also produces Mangino's television show, publishes the gameday programs and manages stadium signage and videoboard advertising for Kansas Athletics. Jason Booker is general manager of the University of Kansas.

Davis is in his 24th year calling the play-by-play for Kansas football and basketball and 40th season overall in the broadcast booth. Davis also serves as host for the weekly radio call-in program, Hawk Talk, featuring the Jayhawk football and basketball coaches.

Davis is also wrapping up his 11th year as the play-by-play announcer for the Kansas City Royals Sports Television Network (RSTN). On the national scene, Davis was part of the NCAA-CBS broadcast for the NCAA women's Final Four in 1990, 1992-97.

Davis has been honored 11 times as Kansas Sportscaster of the Year and last fall was elected to the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame. He is a two-time winner of the Oscar Stauffer Award for excellence in high school sports reporting. He has received the Sportscaster of the Year Award from the Kansas High School Athletic Directors Association and has been recognized for his contribution to Kansas Sports Broadcasting, having received the Hod Humiston Award presented by the Kansas Association of Broadcasters.

A member of the Fort Hays State University Sports Hall of Fame, Davis broadcast Fort Hays sports for 16 years prior to joining the Jayhawk Network. Davis, during the 2000-01 basketball season, was named to Dick Vitale's "Sweet 16" -- his list of the top 16 college basketball broadcasters in the nation.

Lawrence is in his 14th season with the Jayhawk Radio Network and his second full season inside the broadcast booth. He has hosted the Crimson and Blue Line show and performed sideline reporting duties on the Network for the past 13 years. A four-year letter winner while playing tight end and offensive guard at KU, Lawrence was a team captain, offensive player of the year and an All-Big Eight selection in 1981. He served as a graduate assistant coach under Kansas coaches Don Fambrough and Mike Gottfried. Since 1985, he has been a health teacher at South Junior High School in Lawrence, where he also was head football coach for 17 years.

Lawrence was analyst on the KU football radio broadcasts in 1982, and was the TV analyst for KU football telecasts on Sunflower Broadband Channel 6 from 1988 to 1994.

Bukaty serves as the team's sideline reporter and also hosts the pregame Crimson and Blue Line Show. A fourth-generation KU alumnus, Bukaty earned a degree in broadcast journalism in 1998. He has been the Jayhawk Radio Network play-by-play announcer for KU women's basketball since 2000, and hosts head coach Bonnie Henrickson's Hawk Talk radio call-in show. Bukaty has worked in radio and television in Kansas City for the past eight years, where his current responsibilities include pregame and postgame coverage of the Kansas City Royals.

Bob Newton, who handles broadcast operations and affiliate communications, is in his 24th year as producer-engineer of the Jayhawk Network. He also provides technical support for the student radio stations at KU and Baker University, and is a duty officer and public information officer for Douglas County Emergency Management.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Success On The Field And In The Classroom

The Big 12 Conference has been synonymous with success in competitive play and in the classroom as it enters its 12th season, and league members anticipate continued success during the 2007-08 academic year.

In the first 11 years of the Big 12, the conference can boast of 30 team and over 350 individual NCAA Championships. The success continued this past season, with team titles in men's cross country (Colorado) and women's volleyball (Nebraska) in addition to numerous individual crowns.

Over the past three seasons alone, a total of 11 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in 10 of 11 years for the conference, including each of the past 10 seasons.

Through the first nine Bowl Championship Series title games, the Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in the contest. Big 12 squads have played for the football national championship five times in the last eight years, with berths in 12 BCS games overall.

In basketball, eight men's and women's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past six seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences. Numerous national honors have been won by men's and women's student-athletes during conference history, with Kevin Durant (Texas) the most recent to garner accolades as the consensus 2007 National Player of the Year.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Big 12 student-athletes also do well in garnering national academic recognition. This past season, two league standouts were named the Academic All-America of the Year in their sport by ESPN The Magazine and the College Sports Information Directors of America. Nebraska's Sarah Pavan (volleyball) boasted a 4.0 grade-point average in Biochemistry, while Aaron Ivey of Oklahoma (baseball) had a 4.0 GPA in Energy Management.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 177 scholars have received more than $1 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 10 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 42 million people and more than 18 million television households within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

The Big 12 is under the direction of its third commissioner, Kevin L. Weiberg, who took over the reins in December 1998. Weiberg has led the Big 12 into additional football bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN, FSN and CSTV. Most recently, the league renewed and expanded its multi-year arrangement with ABC/ESPN, Inc.

In its 11-year history, the conference has distributed $913.2 million to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

MANGINO ERA SUCCESS

Fan Interest

★ Back-to-back seasons of record attendance. In 2005 a then-record average of 43,675 fans flocked to home games at Memorial Stadium. In 2006, Kansas fans set a new mark with a 44,137 average per contest.

★ A school record single-game attendance mark was set in 2006 when 51,821 attended the Kansas State game, a 39-20 KU victory.

National Recognition

★ Five players have earned All-America recognition in the five-year Mangino era. Ahead of the 2007 season cornerback Aqib Talib has appeared on numerous preseason All-America teams.

★ Aqib Talib led the nation in passes defended in 2006

Conference Honors

★ KU has had 49 players earn All-Big 12 honors in the Mangino era, including seven first-team selections.

★ KU has produced two Big 12 Offensive Newcomers of the Year and one Defensive Player of the Year in current Kansas City Chiefs player Nick Reid.

Academic Honors

★ KU has had great success in the classroom with 27 Academic All-Big 12 First Team selections, including seven in 2006.

MANGINO ERA SUCCESS

Team Record Book

★ Mangino-guided teams have posted four of the top eight passing yardage averages in school history.

★ The 2003 Jayhawks set a school record with 421.5 yards of total offense per game.

★ Defensively, KU has put together three of the best five defenses against the run in school history, including a school record 83.2 yards allowed in 2005 and the second-best mark of 109.0 last year.

Individuals in the Record Books

★ Two Mangino era running backs - Clark Green (4th) and Jon Cornish (9th) - finished their careers in the top 10 of the school's career rushing list, with Cornish setting a season-record with 1,457 yards in 2006.

★ Two Mangino era quarterbacks – Bill Whittemore (6th) and Adam Barmann (8th) – finished their careers in the top 10 of the school's career passing list with Whittemore reaching his position in just two years.

★ Four Mangino era players are ranked in the top seven of the school's career receptions list in Mark Simmons (1st), Brandon Rideau (3rd), Clark Green (4th) and Charles Gordon (7th).

★ Jayhawks in the Mangino era have also succeeded in special teams with some of the school's best-ever placekickers, punters and return men.

★ KU linemen are regulars on All-Big 12 Conference teams, including last year selections David Ochoa (second team) and Bob Whitaker (honorable mention).

Big Wins

★ 2005 Fort Worth Bowl champions, defeating Houston 42-13.

★ Snapped 36-game losing streak to Nebraska in 2005.

★ Defeated Border Showdown opponent Missouri three straight seasons from 2003-05.

Walk On Success

At least 14 players have walked onto the Kansas football program and then earned scholarships in the Mark Mangino era. That group includes four current players in Jeff Foster, John Larson, Sadiq Muhammed and Brian Seymour.

GAME DAY ON THE HILL

An autumn Saturday on the University of Kansas campus is filled with the excitement and festive spirit of Big 12 Conference football. From tailgating before the game, to the spectacular Jayhawk Marching Band, the atmosphere at Memorial Stadium for each home contest makes Lawrence a popular location for college football fans. Sixth-year Head Coach Mark Mangino and his staff promise an exciting and successful brand of football for Jayhawk fans in 2007.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

More than $60 million has been committed to the expansion and upgrade of facilities at the University of Kansas during the past few years. The growth and exciting future of Jayhawk football can be best measured in renovations and modernization of Memorial Stadium -- one of college football's most tradition-filled and picturesque settings.

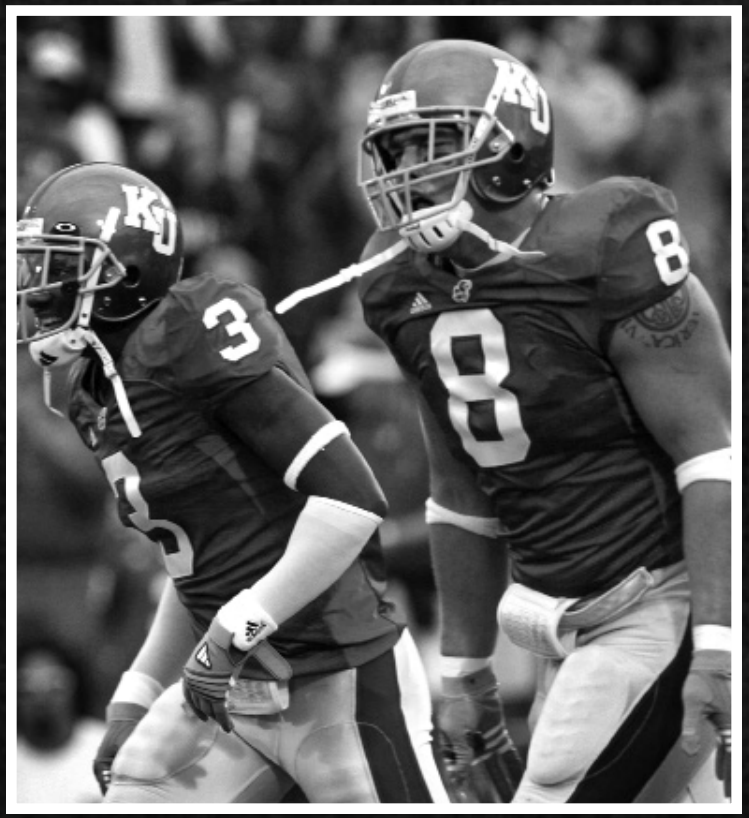

MEMORIAL STADIUM

CHARTING THE PROGRESS

• Recent upgrades to Memorial Stadium include new permanent lights, infrastructure repairs, a new concourse, new home locker room, new expanded pressbox, new MegaVision video board, north end zone video boards and a new AstroPlay field turf.

• Anschutz Pavilion, KU's indoor workout facility, has been recently enhanced with new lighting, new turf, expanded work-out area and complete interior painting.

• Wagnon Student-Athlete Center provides state-of-the-art facili-ties for academic support, team meetings and conference rooms, a spacious lockerroom and a 4,000-square foot training room.

• The recently completed Anderson Family Strength and Conditioning Complex -- a state-of-the-art workout facility -- gives KU football players a top-tier workout facility.

• A new Aquatic Rehabilitation Center was recently built for KU student-athletes which houses three Hydroworx pools -- a Polar-Plunge pool, a Thermal-Plunge pool and a Hydroworx 1000 therapy pool.

KU FACILITIES

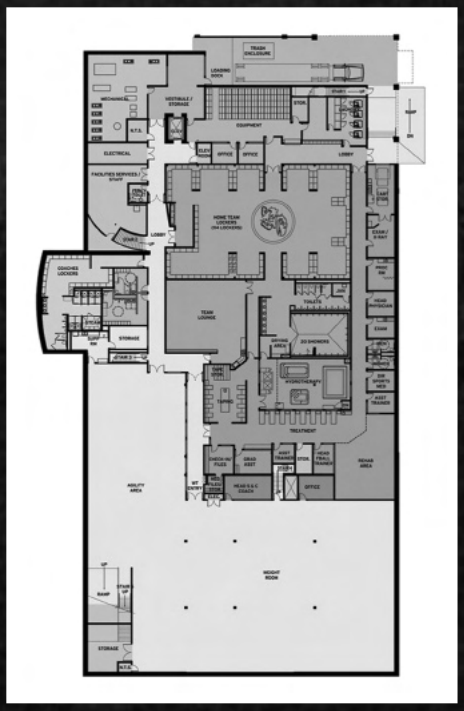

The Anderson Family Football Complex

Thanks largely to the generosity of two KU families, the Kivistos and the Andersons, work has begun on the $31-million Anderson Family Football Complex. It will be built adjacent to Memorial Stadium and completed prior to the 2008 season. HNTB of Kansas City, Mo., is the architect of record. The field in Memorial Stadium was named Kivisto Field in 2006.

KU FACILITIES

Anschutz Pavilion

The indoor practice facility for many Jayhawk teams, Anschutz Pavilion is a 40,000-square-foot multi-purpose building.

Hadl Auditorium

The John Hadl Auditorium is one of the team meeting areas and the home of Jayhawks' weekly football press conferences.

Nesmith Athletic Training Facility

The Dean Nesmith training facility is one of the finest athletic training facilities in the nation. Completed in 1994, the facility is under the direction of Dr. Larry Magee. The training room staff focuses on providing the best health care standards possible to keep student-athletes healthy and injury free. The 4,000-square-foot facility contains a hydrotherapy area, treatment area with private examination rooms, a rehabilitation area, taping and first aid space and staff offices.

Jayhawk Meeting Rooms

The Wagnon Student-Athlete building is home to several meeting rooms used by the football team before and after practices.

DID YOU KNOW?

Beginning with the 2008 season, the Kansas football team will move into an 80,000 square-foot facility -- a state-of-the-art centerpiece of KU's $31 million football complex project, which also includes construction of two practice fields.

2005 Aquatic Rehabilitation Center $410,000

The Aquatic Rehabilitation Center houses three Hydroworx pools. The Polar-Plunge pool is kept at a constant 58 degrees to help control joint inflammation and enhance muscle recovery. The Thermal-Plunge pool is kept a constant 104 degrees to relax tight muscles and stimulate the release of endorphins. The Thermal-Plunge unit also has a powerful pressure hose for deep tissue massage. The focal point of the new facility is the Hydroworx 1000 therapy pool. The therapy pool is equipped with: an integrated underwater treadmill, two powerful underwater jets that can give added resistance to the individuals training or rehabilitation work-out and two underwater cameras that show two views for visual feedback during gait training. The Hydroworx 1000 is utilized for early rehabilitation exercises and therapeutic soft tissue massage under the guidance and supervision of the University of Kansas Sports Medicine Staff.

2005 Football Practice Fields $120,000

The football practice fields were removed during the summer of 2005 and new sod was laid to alleviate any low spots or drainage problems.

2000 AstroPlay $330,000

After playing its games on AstroTurf for 10 seasons, Kansas installed a new AstroPlay surface -- an artificial surface which imitates the look, feel and playability of a natural grass field. The system is constructed with a 10mm pad that lays on the existing asphalt surface followed by the actual “grass” material which lays on top of it. The grass fiber is then filled in with granulated rubber to provide the filler that supports the grass fiber and provides padding, footing and drainage.

1998-99 Horejsi Family Athletic Center $3.8 million

The 16,500 square-foot facility, located between the Wagnon Student-Athlete Center and Hoglund Ballpark, serves as the competition home for Kansas volleyball and as a practice facility for men’s and women’s basketball. The building offers locker room facilities for volleyball and a seating capacity of 1,300.

1997-99 Memorial Stadium $26 million

Phase One of the stadium improvements included permanent lights, infrastructure repairs, a new concourse that included the addition of new and expanded restrooms, concession stands and a new home locker room. Also completed for 1999 was a new expanded press box with 36 scholarship suites.

KU FACILITIES

1999 Video Board $3.1 million
Construction was completed in the summer on the new MegaVision video board at the south end of Memorial Stadium. The video board measures 24' x 32' in size, making it one of the largest video boards in a college football stadium in the midwest.

1999 Anschutz Pavilion Upgrade $1.3 million
Improvements on the indoor workout facility included new lighting, a new turf and complete interior painting.

1994 Memorial Stadium $777,000
A waterproofing project to enhance seating at Memorial Stadium.

1991-93 Wagnon Student-Athlete Center $8.05 million
Construction was initiated in the fall of 1991 on the Wagnon-Student Athlete Center. At the heart of the facility is Hale Achievement Center which houses the student academic services. The office and locker room complex, built in four phases, includes locker room facilities for football and baseball, the 4,000 square-foot Dean Nesmith training room for all sports, team conference rooms and offices for football, men's basketball, the athletics director and Williams Education Fund.

Student-Athlete Support Services Mission Statement

The Student-Athlete Support Services staff focuses all collective resources in support of the academic, personal and interpersonal development of each individual we serve. Therefore, we commit our energy and effort to these students as they pursue their undergraduate degrees at the University of Kansas and beyond.

David Ochoa received an award at the 2007 Senior & Scholar Athlete Banquet.

Strategic Tutoring Program

- STP schedules more than 900 hours of tutoring each week for more than 150 student-athletes.
- STP has 75 tutors who work with all student-athletes who request tutoring assistance.
- Tutoring is available to any student-athlete, regardless of scholarship status or sport.
- Many of the tutors working within STP are instructors or teaching assistants at KU. Some are undergraduate students who have excelled in their respective subject areas.
- Research studies have found the Strategic Tutoring Program to be an effective program for under-prepared student-athletes and highly skilled students alike.
- Student-athletes report a high level of satisfaction with the STP.

Academic Highlights • Spring 2007

- KU student-athletes combined for a grade point average of 3.02 in 2006-07 -- the highest mark in school history.
- For the second straight year the KU football team earned its highest-ever grade point average as it posted a cumulative 2.69 team GPA in 2007.
- A total of 247 student-athletes -- 61 percent of students-athletes on active rosters -- posted a 3.0 GPA or higher to qualify for the Athletic Director's Honor Roll. Included were 36 individuals with a perfect 4.0 GPA.
- Eighty four student-athletes at the University of Kansas were named either Academic All-Big 12 First or Second Team.

"In between our first day in Lawrence and the time we walk down the hill for graduation commencement, the academic support staff is always there to help guide us in our academic endeavors. As a student athlete, we are driven to perfection both on the field and in the classroom. With the assistance of our academic counselors we are given every opportunity to succeed academically. Our support staff has given us the means to earn a degree and the skills necessary for the rest of our lives."

Academic Excellence

• Over the course of the last year, there were 53 football players who earned Athletic Director's Honor Roll (3.0 or better GPA) recognition.

• University of Kansas student-athletes posted an impressive semester in the classroom last spring as nine different teams recorded grade point averages of 3.0 or better.

• Overall, the 500 student-athletes on teams representing KU had a combined 3.02 grade point average last spring.

• Kansas Athletics has allocated more than $1.4 million toward student-athlete support for the current year.

• Since the 1990s, Kansas has produced 101 Academic All-Americans in all sports.

• For their academic achievements last season, 247 student-athletes were named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll after recording a grade point average of 3.0 or higher during the spring semester. Of those student-athletes, 36 recorded perfect 4.0 GPAs last spring. Eighty four student-athletes were also named to Academic All-Big 12 first and second teams.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

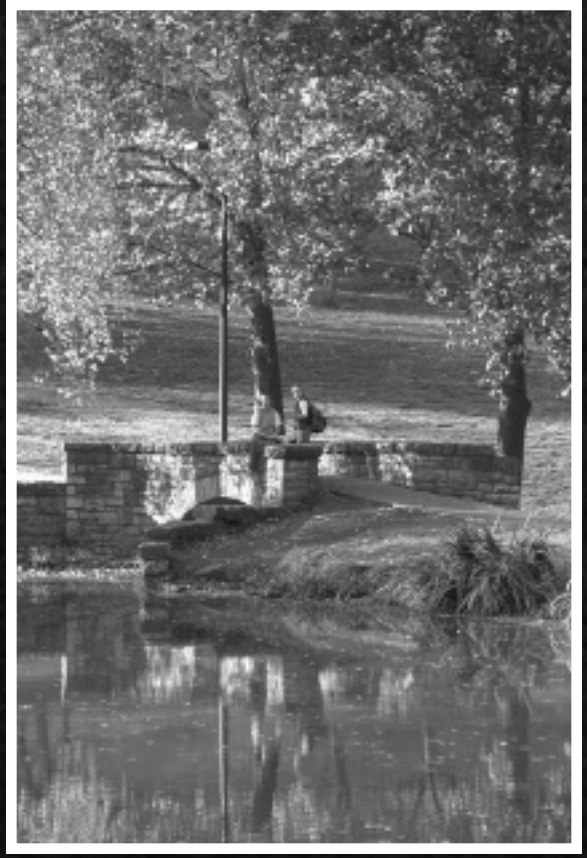

Kansas Roots, Global Reach

The University of Kansas — fondly known as KU — is a tradition-rich, comprehensive research university that throughout its distinguished history has excelled in creating superior, enduring value for students, the state of Kansas, and the world. KU ranks among the nation's premier public research universities and is a leading center for study in a wide range of fields: the arts and humanities, the sciences, and the professions.

Founded by the same determined New Englanders who had emigrated to the Kansas Territory to create a state free of slavery, KU became one of the first universities of the Great Plains. The university opened its doors on Sept. 12, 1866, to 29 men and 26 women. Never in its history has KU restricted admissions based on race or gender.

Since its early years, KU has been fueled by high aspirations and today enjoys a national reputation for innovation and academic excellence. In 1890, the first chapters of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi west of the Mississippi River were chartered at Lawrence. The following year, the KU Endowment Association was established, the first foundation of its kind supporting a state-assisted university. In 1908, KU became one of the first 11 public universities to be admitted to the prestigious Association of American Universities. Not to be forgotten: KU initiated interscholastic basketball competition in 1898, under the leadership of Dr. James Naismith, the founder of basketball.

With a student body of 29,590 and an endowment with assets of more than $1 billion, KU has become a diversified, broad-based center of learning with professional schools in allied health, architecture and urban design, business, education, engineering, fine arts, journalism and mass communication, law, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, and social welfare. KU also has expanded geographically, adding the Medical Center in Kansas City, Kansas; the School of Medicine clinical branch in Wichita; the Edwards Campus in Overland Park; and educational and research facilities throughout the state.

World-class, Accessible Education

KU faculty members have earned international distinction: 10 have been elected national academy members, 35 are fellows of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and 269 have received Fulbright awards for international study since 1950.

Led by the faculty, KU students have achieved an impressive record of major honors: 25 Rhodes, 388 Fulbright, 38 Goldwater, 15 Truman, 13 Udall, and 9 Marshall scholarships; 24 Mellon fellowships; five Javits fellowships; and one Churchill scholarship.

KU prepares students for success in an increasingly global economy. Among public universities, KU ranks fourth in the nation for the percentage of its students who study abroad, and 23rd in the nation for the number of graduates serving as Peace Corps volunteers. In 2005, KU was chosen as one of five universities to receive the Paul Simon Award for excellence in and commitment to international education.

The attractiveness of KU to outstanding high school graduates is reflected in the current student body — the best-qualified in KU history — based on high school GPA and standardized test scores. Last fall, KU enrolled 57 National Merit scholars (16th among U.S. public universities), five National Hispanic scholars, and four National Achievement scholars.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

DEEP Analysis of KU

A nationwide study by Indiana University, the "Documenting Effective Educational Practice" report, in 2004 lauded KU as a progressive research university that thoroughly engaged students in the learning process. "Many other colleges and universities will benefit from learning about KU policies and practice," the DEEP report stated.

University Statistics

- 20,822 undergraduates and 5,206 graduate students at the Lawrence and Edwards campuses; 2,177 students at the Medical Center in Kansas City, Kan.
- More than 100 fields of study and more than 100 opportunities to study abroad are offered to students.
- $159 million in financial aid and scholarships went to more than 14,000 students in 2003-04.

Jayhawk Alumni

To date, thousands of men and women have experienced the value of a KU degree. About 138,000 KU alumni live in Kansas and an equal number live elsewhere in the United States; more than 5,000 alumni live abroad. KU alumni include 1996 presidential nominee and former U.S. Sen. Robert J. Dole; Clyde Tombaugh, who discovered the planet Pluto; Vernon Smith, winner of the 2002 Nobel Prize in economics; Linda Zarda Cook, managing director of Royal Dutch Petroleum Company; William Inge, Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright; and Kevin Helliker, 2004 Pulitzer Prize winner in journalism. Five KU alumni have won MacArthur Foundation "genius" awards: Ann Hamilton, visual artist; Paul Ehrlich, environmental scientist; Wes Jackson, environmental historian and president of The Land Institute, in Salina; David Hillis, evolutionary biologist; and Kent Whealy, founder and director of Seed Savers Exchange and heirloom gardening expert.

Path-Breaking Research

KU's total research expenditures reached a record $274 million in 2004, more than double totals of fewer than 10 years ago. Particularly strong programs in drug development and delivery are fueled by the School of Pharmacy, which stands third in the nation in National Institutes of Health funding. KU is known for biosciences research in such areas as cancer, vaccines and Parkinson's disease.

In the spring of 2005, KU received a $19 million, five-year award from the National Science Foundation for a Science and Technology Center to study polar ice caps and global climate issues. With this award, KU joined an elite group of five U.S. universities with both an NSF Science and Technology Center and an NSF Engineering Research Center. A $17 million grant created KU's engineering research center in 2003 to develop environmentally friendly chemical processes.

Student Statistics

- 69.2 percent of students come from Kansas
- KU students come from 50 states and more than 115 countries
- More than 1,500 students come from abroad
- Average age of undergraduate students: 21
- Percentage of men to women: 49.6 to 50.4
- 17.4% of the University of Kansas student body is multicultural
- Average ACT score for freshmen: 24.1 (enhanced)
- Retention rate for freshmen: 81 percent
- In fall 2004, 28.4 percent of KU first-time freshmen scored 27 or higher on the ACT or converted SAT equivalent. Nationally, 16 percent of ACT test takers scored 27 or above.

KU Tuition & Fees

Tuition and fees at KU are well below the average at comparable universities in the Midwest and the nation, according to the Kansas Board of Regents. For more information, visit www.tuition.ku.edu.

COMMUNITY

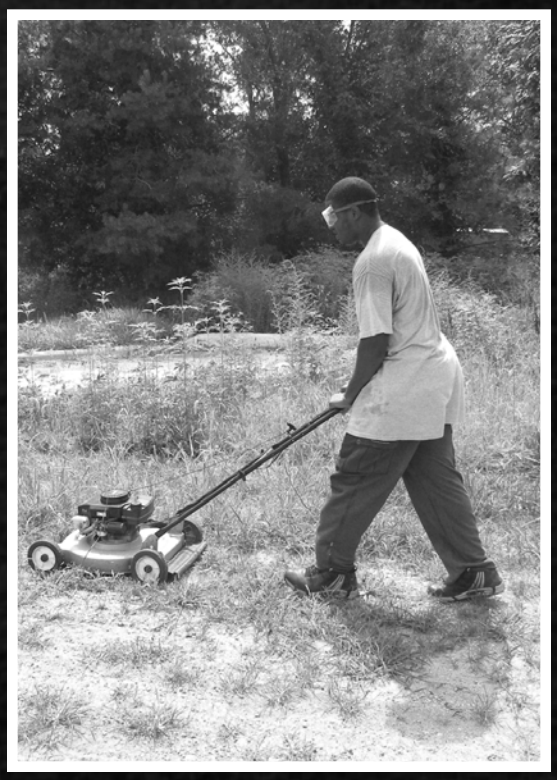

Football student-athletes play an active and meaningful role in supporting community projects during their careers at the University of Kansas. Working through the Student-Athlete Support Services office, KU provides its student-athletes with opportunities to work with charitable organizations, youth groups and community service projects throughout Lawrence and surrounding communities. In addition, student-athletes also are active in the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee which also offers additional avenues of support participation. In recent years, KU student-athletes have organized and participated in a group effort to raise dollars for organizations including the 9/11 relief fund, Hurricane Katrina disaster fund and the Adopt-A-Family assistance program during the holiday season.

COMMUNITY

Character First

CHARACTER FIRST is a program specifically designed for members of the Kansas football team by Head Coach Mark Mangino and Dr. Frank DeSalvo. The program, in which all players participate, provides the team with life-skills and information for the best possible chance of personal success both on and off the playing field.

Purpose of "Character First"

- Provide you with the best possible chance for personal success.
- Improve your decision-making skills.
- Promote your development as competent adults.

How to Make the Best Choices

Campanile Hill

Campanile Hill forms the picturesque backdrop for Memorial Stadium. On a sunny fall Saturday, the "Hill" is transformed into a congregating place for watching Jayhawk football, sunning and barbequing. Potter Lake, just to the southeast of Memorial Stadium and at the bottom of Campanile Hill, adds to the beauty of the Kansas campus.

The Rock Chalk Chant

The Rock Chalk Chant has been the battle cry of KU fans for more than 80 years. This strange, traditional chant, which is among the most famous of all college cheers, was started by E.H.S. Bailey, a professor of chemistry. Bailey wanted a cheer for his Science Club. Returning from a convention in Wichita, Bailey and some associates patterned a yell after the rhythmic cadence of their train rolling along the tracks. On May 21, 1886, Bailey submitted the cheer to his club. Even though there was no football team at KU until 1890, the Rock Chalk Chant tradition steadily grew.

Before the University adopted the cheer in 1897, it consisted of "Rah, Rah, Jayhawk, KU" being repeated three times. An English professor soon suggested that "Rock Chalk" be substituted for "Rah, Rah" because it rhymed with Jayhawk. "Rock Chalk" was also symbolic of the chalky limestone formations found on Mount Oread. Professor Bailey would be amazed to hear 50,000 Jayhawk football fans shouting the cheer he gave his Science Club in 1886; a cheer that Teddy Roosevelt said was the best he had ever heard.

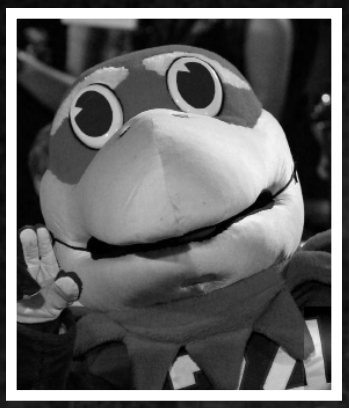

Waving The Wheat

Since the early days of KU football, it has been a ritual of Jayhawk fans to "wave the wheat" following every Kansas scoring drive. The ritual consists of fans waving their arms in the air, an activity which, when done by a large Memorial Stadium crowd, resembles a breezy Kansas wheat field.

KU TRADITION

The Nickname

During the Civil War a regiment raised by Kansas Governor Charles Robinson called itself the "Independent Mounted Jayhawks" (later officially the First Kansas Calvary and then the Seventh Kansas Regiment). By the end of the Civil War the word Jayhawk was associated with the spirit of camaraderie and the courageous fighting qualities that characterized efforts to keep Kansas a free state.

By 1886, the University of Kansas had adopted the mythical bird as part of the KU yell. When the university's football team first took the field in 1890, it seemed only natural that they should be called Jayhawkers. Few colleges and universities have such a meaningful symbol, one so deeply associated with the struggles of the people who founded them.

The Fight Song

George "Dumpy" Bowles, a student with the class of 1912, longed to make a great contribution to KU spirit, but wasn't athletic enough to do historic deeds on the athletic field. He turned to music and produced some outstanding student musical shows.

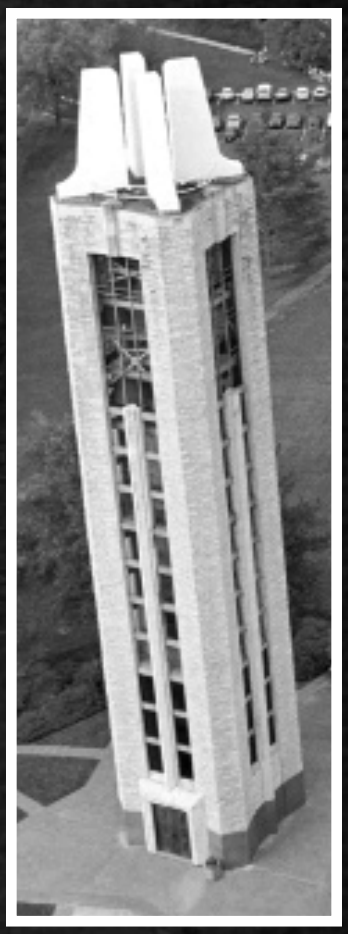

A song in one of these shows was "I'm a Jayhawk." Written in 1912, it was dormant until 1920 when a growth in school spirit brought out "I'm a Jayhawk" once more. The song contributed to the raising of funds to build both the stadium and union as World War I memorials. The 1926 glee club made it known nationally.

The School Colors

The University of Kansas colors, crimson and blue, used since the early 1890s, are not the colors originally adopted by the university Board of Regents in the 1860s. The Regents had decided to adopt the Michigan colors, maize and sky blue.

Maize and blue were used at early oratorical meets, and they may have been used when Kansas competed in rowing in the middle 1880s. However, when football came upon the scene in 1890, the student backers wanted to use Harvard crimson as the athletic color in honor of Col. John J. McCook, a Harvard man, who had given money for an athletic field at KU. That field ran east and west in the proximity of where the north bowl of Memorial Stadium stands on the Kansas campus today.

Until that time, Kansas football games were played at Central Park on Massachusetts Street in downtown Lawrence. Some Yale men were on the faculty, and they demanded the Yale blue be included. The rooters rallied forth to allow crimson and blue on their team. No one fought to retain the original colors, and the vivid deeper tone crimson and blue became generally used. Finally, in May 1896, the KU Athletic Board adopted crimson and blue as the official team colors for the university.

The Alma Mater

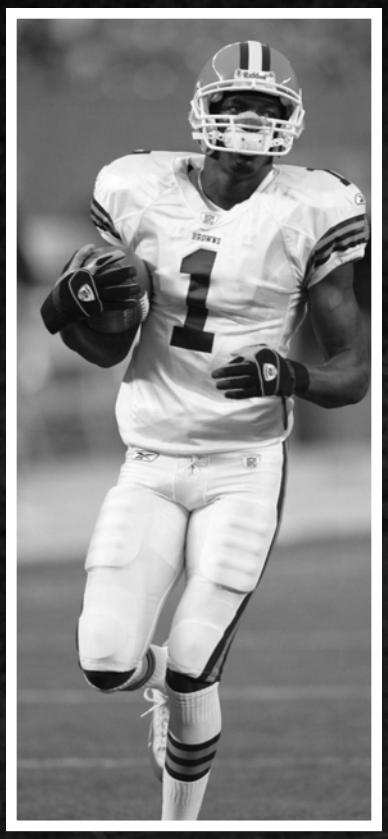

In 1891, professor George Barlow Penny searched for a school song for the Glee and Mandolin Club to sing on its tour through Kansas to Denver and back. No one responded with an original song in answer to his appeals. Just before departure, he thought of the Cornell song "Far Above Cayuga's Waters." Hastily changing a few words, he gave it to the glee club men to sing on the trip. He did not expect the song to be used after their return, but "Crimson and the Blue" still goes on. The music is not Cornell's but an old English folk tune, "Annie Lisle."

What's a Jayhawk?

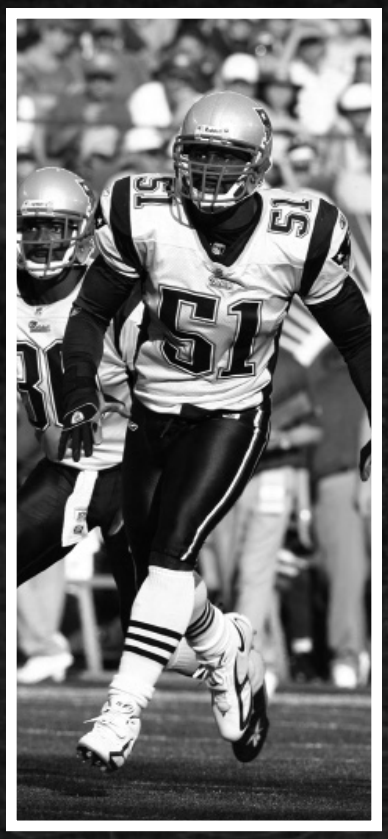

The University of Kansas is home of the Jayhawk, a mythical bird with a fascinating history. Its origin is rooted in the historic struggles of Kansas settlers. The term "Jayhawk" was probably coined about 1848. Accounts of its use appeared from Illinois to Texas.

The name combines two birds - the blue jay, a noisy, quarrelsome thing known to rob other nests, and the sparrow hawk, a stealthy hunter. The message here: Don't turn your back on this bird.

FAMILY ATMOSPHERE

"As a parent, you worry about what type of atmosphere you're dropping your kids into when they leave their families to go away to school, especially out of state. The biggest thing I discovered when we took David to school was the integrity of the kids that Kansas recruits. We met and hung around some of the players and once I knew the integrity of the players, the atmosphere of Kansas football and how great it was, all of my fears went away and I was calm letting him go. When we met parents of the kids, it was easy to recognize where the players gained their integrity. I have never met guys so polite and willing to be around the parents."

John Ochoa of Houston, Texas
Father of former Jayhawk David Ochoa

"Mark going to Kansas was a great experience for him and our family. He developed life-long friendships with the players, but more importantly he got a great lesson in character development and determination. The lessons Coach Mangino taught in the lockerroom will carry these young men much further than any pass, reception, rush or field goal. That's the 'extra' point of life."

"Coach Mangino always talked about building a foundation on which the football program could grow. In the four years that Nick played for KU, we saw a good coaching staff assembled and quality players recruited. Based on this combination, KU won some history-making games and played to a sold out Memorial Stadium. The future of the program has never looked better. It's been great watching our son live out one of his dreams."

"I thank the University of Kansas for providing my son with a great education, the opportunity to play in front of 50,000 people each week and develop into the great son he has become. SEASON OUTLOOK

After winning three of the last four games to close the 2006 season, Kansas players and coaches are anxious to take another step forward as the Jayhawks prepare for their sixth season under head coach Mark Mangino. For the third time in the last four years KU posted a bowl-eligible record last season and with 33 returning lettermen, a strong nucleus appears set to have a positive year.

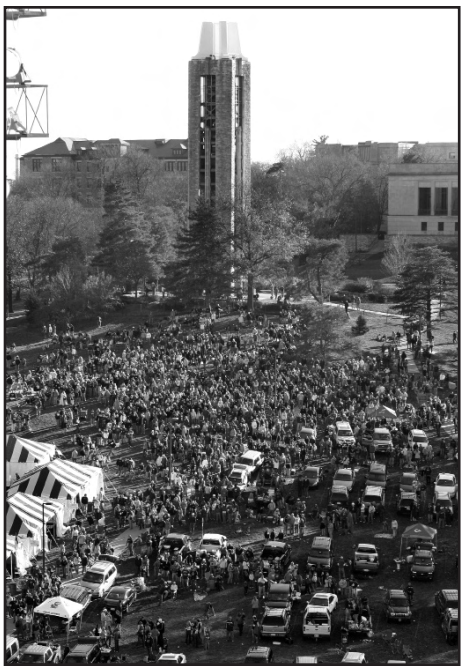

Among the returning lettermen are 16 starters from last year's 6-6 team. That group includes six offensive and eight defensive starters and both kickers.

While KU graduated the Big 12 Conference's leading rusher in Jon Cornish on offense, the Jayhawks do return the team's leading passer and receiver from a year ago in Kerry Meier and Dexton Fields, respectively. In addition fullback Brandon McAnderson was a second-team all-conference selection by the Big 12 coaches and offensive tackle Anthony Collins was an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention pick by the AP.

Defensive returnees include 2006 first-team all-league and 2007 preseason All-America selection, Aqib Talib at cornerback among its eight returning starters. Other Big 12 honorees from last year include lineman James McClinton (second-team by the AP), linebacker Mike Rivera (honorable mention) and Anthony Webb (all-freshman team).

The special teams group returns both punter Kyle Tucker and place kicker Scott Webb as well as Marcus Herford, who averaged 26.1 yards per kickoff return and earned second-team all-league honors as a return man.

The season starts with four straight non-conference home games and after a bye week, the Jayhawks will open league play at Kansas State before finishing the league slate against Border Showdown foe Missouri in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium on Thanksgiving weekend.

Head Coach Mark Mangino and Offensive Coordinator Ed Warinner

Entering the season a pair of sophomore quarterbacks, Kerry Meier and Todd Reesing, will battle to see who will guide the team. Both bring a year of experience and tenacity to the position after a season of Big 12 play. They will have a vast assortment of pass catchers to call upon in 2007. Junior Dexton Fields, who hauled in a team-high 45 receptions, returns along with an assortment of speedy, talented options for Meier and/or Reesing to use.

Seniors Marcus Henry and Jeff Foster and juniors Marcus Herford and Raymond Brown all provide excellent speed and reliability at the wideout positions. Throw into the mix senior tight ends Derek Fine and Marc Jones, and the Jayhawks air attack looks like it could be effective this year.

Despite the loss of All-Big 12 standout Jon Cornish, the 2007 KU backfield will feature an array of ball carriers that will offer a mixture of toughness and agility. There is little doubt that senior Brandon McAnderson will use 2007 as a chance to showcase his powerful running ability, a tough-nosed approach that saw him score five rushing touchdowns in 2006. Teaming with the bruising McAnderson will be sophomore Jake Sharp, a stealthy back able to gap and slash opponents for large gains.

In the trenches, the Jayhawks will rely upon their two returning offensive tackles, senior Cesar Rodriguez and junior Anthony Collins, to stabilize the line-of-scrimmage.

Offensive Line

*Anthony Collins (2L)	*Travis Dambach (4L)
*Cesar Rodriguez (3L)	*David Ochoa (4L)
	*Bob Whitaker (4L)

The offensive line welcomes a host of newcomers prepared to form a nucleus as talented as the one that departed in 2006. Senior Cesar Rodriguez and junior Anthony Collins return from the starting group which guided Jon Cornish to a new single-season Kansas rushing record. Both tackles started all 12 games for the Jayhawks last season. Joining them will be an array of offensive linemen hopeful to crack the starting lineup.

Junior college transfers Chet Hartley and Jason Hind will look to make immediate impacts. Look for a spirited battle in the trenches among this group as they compete for a spot on the top unit.

Tight End

Letterwinners Returning	Letterwinners Lost
*Derek Fine (3L)	None
Marc Jones (1L)

(* - 2006 starter)

Kansas boasts one of the most productive tight ends in the Big 12 in senior Derek Fine. A 2007 captain, Fine snagged 28 catches for 355 yards and five touchdowns last year, including two scores in KU's win at Iowa State. Providing depth at the position is senior Marc Jones, along with Bradley Dedeaux and Matthew Matte.

SEASON OUTLOOK

TE Derek Fine (85), OT Anthony Collins (78) and OT Cesar Rodriguez return up front for the Jayhawks.

Wide Receiver

*Dexton Fields (2L)	*Brian Murph (2L)
Jeff Foster (2L)	Dominic Roux (3L)
*Marcus Henry (3L)
Marcus Herford (2L)

(*-2006 starter)

Headlining the pack of wide receivers is junior Dexton Fields, who led the team with 45 receptions for 455 yards and five touchdowns a year ago.

Teaming with Fields on the outside will be senior Marcus Henry, who finished 2006 with 25 catches, 316 yards and three touchdowns, and junior Marcus Herford, who averaged 17.1 yards-per-reception in 2006.

Joining the trio is a group of underclassmen in Tertavian Ingram, Micah Brown and Xavier Rambo, all of whom are eager to make their mark quickly in the receiving corps. Senior Jeff Foster also returns to the squad, adding more Big 12 experience to the talented group.

Running Back

Letterwinners Returning	Letterwinners Lost
Brandon McAnderson (3L)	*Jon Cornish (4L)
Jake Sharp (1L)

(*-2006 starter)

Replacing a school's single-season rushing leader and an All-Big 12 performer is not an easy task, yet KU appears poised to quickly fill the void left by the departure of Jon Cornish.

Headlining the group of rushers is sophomore Jake Sharp. In his rookie campaign last season, the Salina, Kan., native appeared in 12 games for the Jayhawks, amassing 129 yards on only 21 carries, good for a 6.1 average per carry. He also caught six passes out of the backfield for 73 yards and totaled 278 all-purpose yards.

Sharp's potential and Cornish's success is due in large part to the steady performance of senior fullback Brandon McAnderson. Providing sturdy guidance for the backs, McAnderson cleared many lanes for Cornish in his record-setting season. McAnderson also saw action carrying the ball, rushing for 122 yards and five scores on 31 carries. For his effort, McAnderson was named to the All-Big 12 Second Team by the league's head coaches. Former wideout Angus Quigley could see action here as well

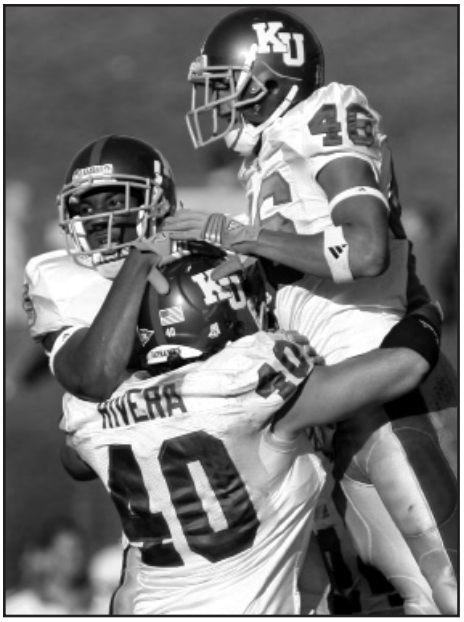

Quarterback

Letterwinners Returning	Letterwinners Lost
*Kerry Meier (1L)	Adam Barmann (4L)
Todd Reesing (1L)

(*-2006 starter)

Kansas showcases a pair of young signal callers who have successfully undergone the transformation from raw prospects to legitimate Division I quarterbacks. Kerry Meier returns for his second season under center. Meier put up impressive numbers in his first season for the Jayhawks, throwing for 1,193 yards and 13 touchdowns in his rookie campaign. He completed 104 passes at a 56.5 percent completion clip in eight starts. Meier also displayed a tremendous ability rushing the ball, totaling 447 yards and five touchdowns throughout the season.

Todd Reesing provides KU with an intriguing change up. Reesing presents KU's opponents with a quarterback capable of entering a game and paying immediate dividends, both with his arm and his scrambling ability. Filling in for Meier and then-senior Adam Barmann, Reesing ignited a spark for the Jayhawks against Colorado, throwing for 106 yards and two touchdowns and rushing for 90 yards and another score in the Kansas victory.

Much to the chagrin of offensive coordinators everywhere, Kansas retains a large portion of a defensive squad that ranked among the NCAA's top units a year ago. The defensive line returns several key contributors including All-Big 12 Second Team selection James McClinton, sophomore Caleb Blakesley, sophomore Jeff Wheeler, junior John Larson and junior Russell Brorsen, who all saw extensive playing time in 2006.

At linebacker, the Kansas features several explosive and tenacious defenders equally adept at causing havoc in the backfield or dropping off into pass coverage. Juniors Joe Mortensen, Mike Rivera and James Holt will team with sophomores Jake Schermer, Arist Wright and Olaitan Oguntodu to form what could be the team's deepest unit.

The Jayhawk secondary is in solid hands with cornerback Aqib Talib returning for his junior season after being named All-Big 12 First Team last year. The Richardson, Texas, native, is garnering attention from around the league, as he has already been named a preseason All-American. Junior Kendrick Harper and will patrol the other side of the field, while Tang Bacheyie and Darrell Stuckey will provide support for both the run and the pass from their safety positions.

Jeff Wheeler (1L)	(*-2006 starter)

Anchored by returning team captain defensive tackle James McClinton, the defensive line looks to continue its dominance as it yielded just one individual 100-yard rushing performance in the past two seasons. A 2006 All-Big 12 Honorable Mention pick, McClinton, a senior, returns for his final year coming off a highly successful junior campaign which saw him finish fourth on the team in tackles with 51, record six sacks and register 16 tackles-for-loss. He will be joined in the middle by Todd Haselhorst.

Coming off the edge for the Jayhawks will be a pair of defensive ends who experienced tremendous success in limited reps. Juniors Russell Brorsen and John Larson combined for 46 tackles, 19 tackles-for-loss and six quarterback sacks. Max Onyegbule will also push for starting time after redshirting in 2006.

A talented group of athletes comprise this year's linebacker corps, a group whose maturation and development became apparent in each subsequent week of the 2006 season. Junior middle linebacker Mike Rivera, who tallied a team-high 90 tackles -- 63 solo -- in the 2006 campaign, anchors the unit for the Jayhawks. A 2006 All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection, Rivera also notched eight tackles-for-loss, two sacks, five pass deflections and eight quarterback hurries. Joining Rivera on the outside is junior Joe Mortensen and the combination of sophomores James Holt and Arist Wright. Mortensen finished third on the team with 82 tackles and also registered 12 tackles-for-loss and four sacks. Holt and Wright combined to notch 56 tackles. Wright also had a dramatic interception return for a touchdown against Baylor. Jake Schermer will also join the fracas in making KU's linebackers one of the best units in the Big 12.

K Scott Webb (39) owns the third-best career field goal percentage in school history.

LB Mike Rivera (40) led the Jayhawks in tackles in 2006.

While the linemen and linebackers receive a good amount of attention, it is the Kansas secondary that could be the unit's most talented group. Junior Aqib Talib, an All-Big 12 First Team selection at cornerback, returns after finishing fourth in the nation and first in the Big 12 with his six interceptions last year. When teams look on the other side of the field, they shouldn't be too optimistic though. Junior college transfer Kendrick Harper won the starting job on the other side of the field and brings a load of experience to that position. The safety positions are manned by a solid two-deep of Tang Bacheyie and Patrick Resby at strong safety and Darrell Stucky and Justin Thornton at free safety. Sadiq Muhammed also addes valuable experience to the group. Thornton registered the most tackles (46) and pass break-ups (four) and also had an interception. Stuckey chipped in with 32 tackles, three pass break-ups and a fumble recovery while Muhammed added 16 tackles and an interception.

Senior place kicker Scott Webb and senior punter Kyle Tucker return to anchor the Kansas special teams units. Webb finished sixth in the Big 12 last season in field goals (13) and field goal percentage (72.2). He set a new career long with a 49-yard make in KU's victory against Kansas State. He was also eight of eight on field goal attempts between 30-39 yards and registered 35 touchbacks on his kickoffs. Tucker aims to return to the form that made him a Ray Guy semifinalist in 2005. Last year, Tucker pinned 23 of his punts inside the 20-yard line while limiting his touchbacks to only six. On returns, junior Marcus Herford looks to pick-up where he left off as the team's top kick-returner, when he amassed 757 yards on 29 returns, a 26.1 yard average, including an 88-yard return. The team will audition several candidates for punt returner as the team's top two returners from last season, Jonathan Lamb and Brian Murph, have both graduated.

HEAD COACH

Mark Mangino

Sixth Season At Kansas

Big wins, bowl-eligible seasons, unprecedented interest in the program and player recognition are just some of the attributes that have signified the five-year Mark Mangino era at Kansas. As Mangino enters his sixth season as the head coach at Kansas, there is no doubt the Jayhawk football program is much more talented and competitive than before his arrival. In five years at KU, Mangino has guided the Crimson and Blue to a pair of bowl contests and given the Jayhawk faithful a renewed sense of pride.

Under Mangino, Kansas has been bowl eligible three times in the last four years and with wins against Nebraska and Kansas State and three victories in the last five meetings against Missouri, KU has taken a big step forward in striving to become one of the Big 12's elite programs.

The on the field success can be seen off the field as well, especially in interest in the program. In 2005 a then-record average of 43,675 fans flocked to Memorial Stadium. That mark was bettered last season as 44,137 attended KU's seven home games. Interest is once again high as the Jayhawks enter the 2007 campaign with a talented group of returnees.

Also with an increased number of victories has come player recognition. Kansas enters the 2007 season with one of the nation's more highly regarded players in junior cornerback Aqib Talib. In Mangino's tenure, five Kansas players have earned All-America recognition while he has produced the school's single-season rushing leader in Jon Cornish, the career receiving leader in Mark Simmons and one of the top passers in school history in current graduate assistant Bill Whittemore, who ranks sixth in career passing yards despite playing just two seasons.

And while there have been plenty of offensive highlights in his career at Kansas, Mangino's teams have also become known for their defensive stinginess. The Jayhawks have been one of the Big 12's best against the run and that toughness is expected to continue this season.

In 2006, he led the Jayhawks to bowl-eligibility for the second-straight year after the team posted a 6-6 overall record -- the first time since 1994-95 that the team was eligible to participate in a bowl contest in back-to-back years.

The Mangino Family -- (back row) Tommy, Mark and son-in-law David; (front row) Mary Jane with Yogi, Samantha and granddaughter Gabriella.

Senior running back Jon Cornish set KU's single-season rushing record and Jayhawk fans flocked to Memorial Stadium in impressive numbers, highlighting Mangino's fifth year at the helm of the Kansas football program. On Nov. 25, Cornish became the school's rushing king after running for 126 yards on 15 carries against Missouri in the final game of the regular-season.

In addition, a school-record attendance of 51,821 at KU's game vs. Kansas State on Nov. 18 helped the team average 44,137 fans at Memorial Stadium during the 2006 season -- breaking the single-season attendance record for the second-straight year.

Kansas ended the regular-season as one of the hottest teams in the Big 12, claiming victories in three of its final four games of the year, including a 39-20 rout of in-state rival Kansas State. KU's three-game win streak over Colorado, Iowa State and Kansas State marked the first time in school history that the Jayhawks had won three consecutive Big 12 games.

Two KU players, Cornish and Talib earned All-Big 12 First Team honors following the season. Cornish led the Big 12 with 1,457 rushing yards and averaged a school-record 5.8 yards per carry. Talib led the nation in passes defended with an average of 2.80 break-ups per game and tied for the Big 12 lead with six interceptions.

During the 2005 season, Mangino led the Jayhawks to their first bowl victory since 1995 as the team defeated Houston 42-13 in the Fort Worth Bowl. By appearing in the 2005 bowl game, Mangino became the only coach in KU history to direct his team to a pair of bowl contests in a three-year span.

Mangino's 2005 squad also posted a perfect 6-0 record at KU's Memorial Stadium - the team's first undefeated/untied season at home since 1951. In fact, KU fans backed Mangino and his team like never before. An average of 43,675 fans showed up per game – then an all-time Memorial Stadium record. He also guided the team to its first win over Nebraska since 1968, snapping a 36-game Cornhusker win streak. In addition, Mangino's club won its third consecutive game against border rival Missouri.

He coached the 2005 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in senior linebacker Nick Reid, who became the first Kansas player to ever earn the honor. Three of his athletes -- Reid, senior defensive end Charlton Keith and junior all-purpose player Charles Gordon were each named All-Big 12 First-Team following that season.

In 2004, Mangino guided a relatively inexperienced club to a 4-7 record, despite a schedule that included six games against opponents that were ranked among the Top 25 during the 2004 season. Only two NCAA teams played more regular-season games against opponents ranked in the Top 25.

For the first time since the 1989 season, Kansas was victorious against both of its biggest rivals -- Missouri and Kansas State. The Jayhawks snapped K-State's 11-game win-streak in the series by defeating the Wildcats 31-28 on Oct. 9 in Lawrence, and later tamed the Tigers 31-14 on Nov. 9 in Columbia, Mo.

Mangino coached his first All-American at Kansas as sophomore cornerback Charles Gordon was named third-team All-America by the Associated Press. After recruiting Gordon to Lawrence as a wide receiver, Mangino made the bold move to switch him to the defensive side of the ball where Gordon tied for the NCAA lead with seven interceptions and broke-up a Big 12-best 15 passes.

It was easy for KU fans to see that Mangino's decision to bolster the defense was a wise move. As a team, the Jayhawks recorded 19 interceptions in 2004, the most since the 1987 club had 23. In addition, eight different Jayhawks had at least one interception, and Gordon's seven picks marked the third-best single-season total in school history and the most by one KU player since 1951.

Furthermore, the revamped secondary allowed the Jayhawk rush defense to surrender an average of just 117.6 yards per game on the ground -- the third-best average in school history and the best since 1961.

In 2003, Mangino led the Jayhawks to their first bowl appearance since 1995 when the team was selected to participate in the Mazda Tangerine Bowl. His 2003 team, which finished the season 6-7 overall, collected more victories than any KU squad since the 1995 Jayhawks ended the year with a 10-2 record. Mangino's exciting brand of offense set 12 different single-season school records including most points (384), most first downs (286), most touchdown passes (25) and most yards gained (5,479).

What They're Saying

"Mangino has changed the attitude about Kansas football - both within his program and throughout Lawrence. Once a Big 12 afterthought, Mangino has built the Jayhawks into a mean, tough, gritty football team that opponents know not to take lightly."

Jason King, Kansas City Star

"Mark Mangino is one of the greatest stories of persistence in the coaching profession. He has a passion for helping young people and will do a great job for Kansas. I am proud to have been associated with him. He embodies all that is good in the coaching profession."

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Head Coach

"The days of KU being known strictly as a basketball school are coming to an end."

Doug Tucker
Associated Press

"From December's first bowl win in a decade to the new $31 million football facility that's scheduled to open in 2008, there's something positive happening in Lawrence. And Mangino has been the catalyst, helping make football relevant at a traditional basketball power. Last year's historical shellacking of Nebraska sent notice that the Jayhawks are about the turn the corner with Mangino at the wheel."

CollegeFootballNews.com

"Mark is a very good hire for the University of Kansas. He is very intelligent and a good worker. Mark knows what it takes to develop a successful program, having been part of that both here at Kansas State and at Oklahoma. Mark has a nice family and he has always been a good family man."

Bill Snyder, Former K-State Head Coach

"Mark is a very disciplined and thorough coach who has the fire and the emotion you need to motivate a team. His track record at OU and Kansas State is one of great success. That's a reflection of his leadership."

Bob Stoops, Oklahoma Head Coach

HEAD COACH

A dynamic recruiter, Mangino has seen two of his signees named Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year during his tenure at KU -- quarterback Bill Whittemore in 2002 and center Joe Vaughn in 2003.

Prior to his arrival in Lawrence, Mangino was one of the primary architects in the rebuilding process at both Oklahoma (1999-01) and Kansas State (1991-98). As assistant head coach and offensive coordinator under Bob Stoops at OU, the Sooner staff took a program that was 5-6 in 1998 and carved out seasons of 7-5 (1999), 13-0 (2000) and 10-2 (2001).

Mangino was the recipient of the 2000 Frank Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in college football in the second of his three seasons as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Oklahoma.

Throughout his career, Mangino has been associated with football programs which have experienced phenomenal success and has been a key ingredient in building that success during that time. He has been in a leadership role with teams that have qualified for bowl games in nine of the last 11 years, including the 2000 season when the Sooners won the Big 12 Conference championship, finished ranked number one nationally and beat Florida State in the Orange Bowl to win the national title.

During its run to the national championship in 2000, Mangino's Sooner offense ranked seventh nationally in scoring (39.0) and 13th in pass offense (294.7). In addition, OU averaged more than 427 yards per game in total offense for the second consecutive season. Under the influence of Mangino as offensive coordinator, the Sooners ranked second in the conference in pass offense at the conclusion of both the 2000 and 2001 seasons.

During his three years on the Sooner staff, the OU offense scored 31 or more points in 26 of 37 games and produced 40 or more points 14 times. The Sooners averaged 34.1 points per game during those three seasons.

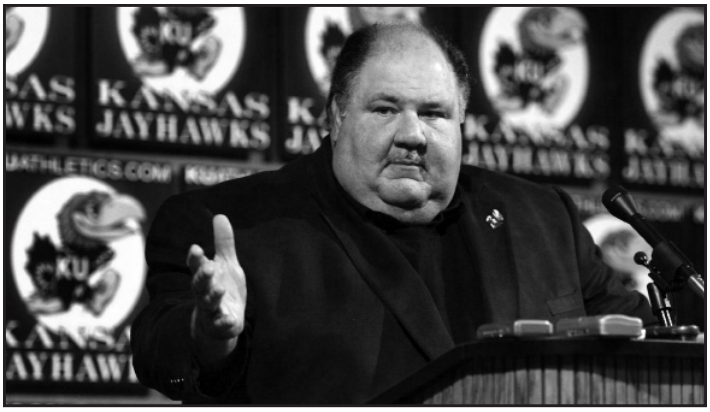

At Kansas State, Mangino served as recruiting coordinator, running game coordinator and, in 1998, was appointed assistant head coach. The season prior to his arrival in Manhattan, the Wildcats posted a 5-6 record. Over the next eight seasons, K-State went 71-23-1 with six consecutive nine-plus win seasons and played in six straight bowl games.

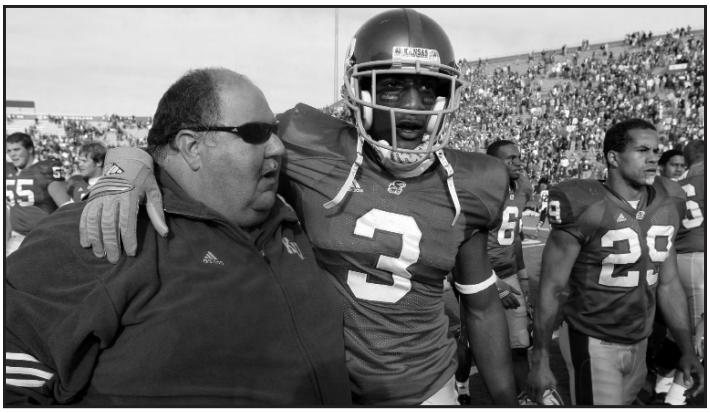

Overall, Kansas State and Oklahoma was a combined 101-30-1 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in eight of 11 seasons during Mangino's involvement on the coaching staff.

Prior to his stint at Kansas State, Mangino worked one season as head football coach at Ellwood City (Pa.) High School. He spent three seasons (1987-89) as offensive line coach and as offensive coordinator at Geneva (Pa.) College, where he helped that program to its three best seasons (combined 24-9) in modern school history. The 1987 Geneva squad reached the NAIA national semifinals.

Mangino also coached two seasons (1985-86) at Youngstown State, including one under current Ohio State head coach Jim Tressel and was an assistant coach at his alma mater, New Castle (Pa.) High School for four seasons.

Mangino and his wife, Mary Jane, have a daughter, Samantha, a graduate of the University of Kansas, and a son, Tommy, a senior at Washburn University. Samantha and her husband, David Hardy, reside in Lawrence, with their daughter Gabriella.

• Aqib Talib led the nation in passes defended and was one of two first-team all-Big 12 honorees for the Jayhawks.

ASSISTANT COACH

Bill Young

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line

Bill Young, a 38-year coaching veteran with 20 seasons as a defensive coordinator, enters his sixth season as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Kansas. Young joined the Kansas staff in December 2002 after serving as defensive line coach with the Detroit Lions in 2001.

The 2006 season was another banner year for the Jayhawk defense under Young's guidance. The unit finished third in the Big 12 and 28th in the nation in rushing defense (109.0 yards per game), as it held four opponents to under 70 yards of rushing and limited all opponents to a fourth-down conversion rate of less than 25 percent.

In 2005, Young oversaw the development of a defense which finished the season as the top run-stopping unit in the Big 12 and eighth among all NCAA I teams. In nine of KU's 12 games during the 2005 season, the opposition's run-game failed to collect 100 yards rushing as a team. After KU's win over Missouri on Oct. 29, Young was awarded the Master Coaches Survey game ball and was named Coordinator of the Week by Rivals.com.

In 2004, Young directed a much-improved defense that led the Big 12 with 27 takeaways, including a league-best 19 interceptions. Cornerback Charles Gordon, in his first full season under Young's tutelage, tied for the national lead with seven picks. In addition, the defense allowed an average of 117.6 rushing yards per game -- the third-best single-season average in school history at the time and the lowest since 1961. The biggest improvement in the overall defense occurred on third downs, as the opposition converted just 29.9 percent of its chances -- only two Big 12 teams in 2004 were more effective at forcing fourth down.

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Young worked three seasons as defensive coordinator at Southern California. While at USC in 1999, his defense led the nation in total takeaways and topped the conference in rushing defense and turnover margin (third nationally). His USC defense in 1998 was number one in the Pac-10 in total defense, pass efficiency defense (third nationally) and scoring defense. It was also ranked second in the country in forced turnovers.

In addition to his three years at USC, his stints as defensive coordinator came at Tulsa in 1983-84, Ohio State from 1988-95 and Oklahoma in 1996-97. Much of Young's coaching career (1980-95) was spent assisting former Kansas assistant and former Ohio State head coach, John Cooper.

Their association began in 1980 at Tulsa, where Young was hired as defensive line coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator three years later. He moved with Cooper to Arizona State, where he was the Sun Devils' defensive line coach from 1985-87 before following Cooper to Ohio State in 1988, where he led the Buckeyes' defense for eight seasons before taking over the defense at Oklahoma.

Young's first two coaching assignments came at his alma mater, Oklahoma State, from 1976-78 and for one season as Iowa State's defensive tackles coach in 1979.

Young played outside linebacker and defensive end at Oklahoma State from 1965-67, and led the Cowboys in interceptions in 1965.

During his 27 years in college coaching, Young has helped elevate 31 players to the NFL, including seven players apiece during his stints at Ohio State, Arizona State and Tulsa, and five apiece while at Oklahoma State and Oklahoma.

Among future NFL players he helped coach are Dexter Manley (Oklahoma State), Dan Saleumua and Trace Armstrong (Arizona State), Alonzo Spellman, Dan Wilkinson and Mike Vrabel (Ohio State), Barron Tanner and Kelly Gregg (Oklahoma), David McMillan and Charlton Keith (Kansas).

Bill and Lawana Young

Prior to his college coaching career, Young spent six seasons on the prep level at two high schools in Oklahoma. Young, who played linebacker at Oklahoma State from 1965-67, was an academic all-Big Eight selection as a senior in 1967 and earned his bachelor's degree in education that year. He then went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education at Central Oklahoma in 1971.

Young and his wife, Lawana, reside in Lawrence.

ASSISTANT COACH

Ed Warinner

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

This past spring Ed Warinner returned to Kansas as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after spending the previous two years as run-game coordinator and offensive line coach at Illinois. Warinner spent two years at Kansas, 2003-04, as the offensive live coach and run-game coordinator. The move to offensive coordinator will not be unfamiliar role for Warinner, as he spent two years at Army in the same capacity.

A 23-year college football coaching veteran, Warinner's Illinois offense led the Big Ten Conference and finished 10th in the nation in rushing yards per game, averaging 188.3 yards on the ground per contest in 2006. The average was the Illini's best output since 1973.

Warinner has worked for a number of legendary coaches, including Fisher DeBerry at Air Force, Jim Young and Bob Sutton at Army, George Perles at Michigan State, Jim Dennison at Akron and Ron Zook at Illinois.

In his first stint at Kansas, Warinner served as the teams' offensive line coach in 2003 and o-line coach and run game coordinator in 2004. He was instrumental in the development of Jayhawks center Joe Vaughn, who was named the 2003 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year.

Warinner, who was originally hired as KU's offensive line coach on February 14, 2003, was promoted to run-game coordinator the following season. His coaching efforts were evident in his first stint with Kansas as the KU offense improved it's rushing average by nearly 40 total yards per game and 1.2 yards per rushing attempt in 2003. In addition, the Jayhawks scored nearly 10 more points per game while allowing 14 fewer sacks.

A veteran of six college bowl games as a coach, Warinner also spent time leading the rushing attack at the Air Force Academy and at Army. While at the Academy, the Falcons took home the national rushing title, averaging 307.8 yards per game on the ground, while going 8-5 overall and participating in the 2002 San Francisco Bowl.

Prior to his stint at Air Force, Warinner spent 13 seasons at Army coaching the offensive line and serving as both the recruiting coordinator (1988-91) and offensive coordinator (1998-99). He also spent time on the coaching staff at Michigan State (1985-86) and Akron (1984).

A Strasburg, Ohio native, Warinner played football and baseball at Mount Union College from 1980-84. In 1983, he was the school's leading rusher, scorer and receiver, while earning his fourth letter in football.

Warinner received his bachelor's degree from Mount Union College in 1984 and his master's degree from Akron in 1985. Warinner and his wife Mary Beth have three children, Madisyn, Merideth and Edward.

ASSISTANT COACH

Clint Bowen

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Former KU standout Clint Bowen begins his seventh season on the Jayhawk coaching staff and his fifth as the team's safeties coach. In addition, Bowen was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in February 2006. Prior to his promotion, Bowen spent five years as KU's special teams coordinator.

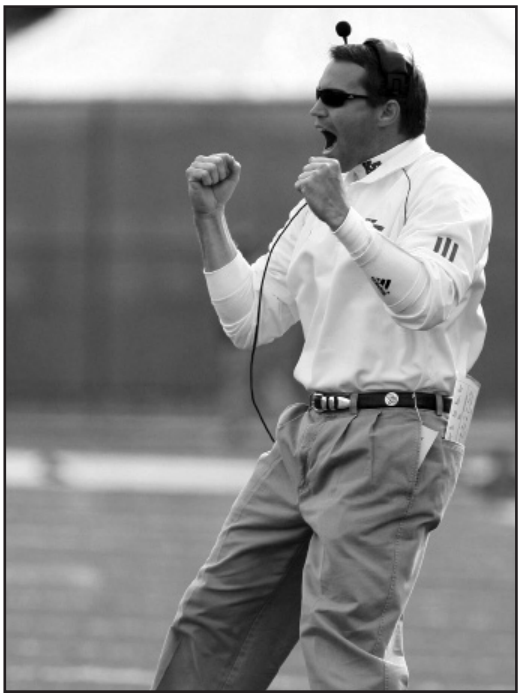

During the 2005 season, Bowen guided KU's kickoff coverage unit which ended the season as the top coverage team in the Big 12. In addition, KU's kick return (5th Big 12, 20.3 yards per return) and punt return (4th Big 12, 12.1 yards per return) units both ranked near the top of the conference.

In 2004, Bowen directed the team's kickoff return unit, which ranked third in the Big 12 averaging 21.8 yards per return. KU's kickoff coverage unit also ranked third in the league after allowing just 17.2 yards per return.

Bowen, who worked with the running backs during 2002, is no stranger to Kansas football. A former defensive back with the Jayhawks in the early 1990s, he paid his dues as a graduate assistant on the KU football staff.

A native of Lawrence and prep star at Lawrence High School, Bowen worked as a defensive graduate assistant coach at KU in 1998 and 1999. He served as assistant director of football operations during the 2000 season.

In addition to his experience at KU, Bowen served one season (1997) as a graduate assistant at Minnesota with his college coach, Glen Mason.

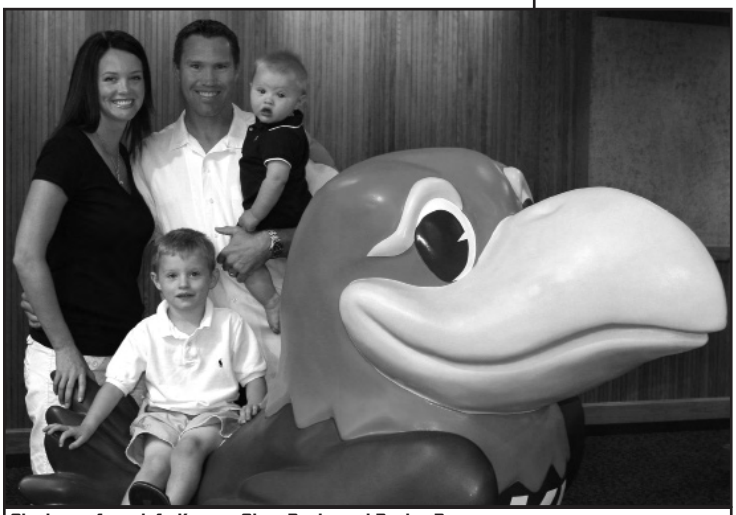

He also gained valuable leadership experience while serving as head coach of the Topeka (Kan.) Knights (IFL) football team in 1999.

Bowen was a hard-hitting defensive back for the Jayhawks in 1992-93 following one season at Butler County Community College. He led the KU defense in total tackles in 1993 with 114 total stops. That figure ranks as the third-most tackles by a Jayhawk defensive back in school history.

Bowen was instrumental in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-4 final record, a No. 22 national ranking and a win over Brigham Young in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. He was the recipient of the Willie Pless Tackler of the Year Award following his senior season in 1993.

He is the product of a football family. His father (Charley Bowen) was a two-time high school All-American at Lawrence High School and his older brother (Charley, Jr.) was a four-year letter winner as a defensive back for the Jayhawks who also played in the Arena Football League.

Bowen and his wife Kristie have a three-year old son, Baylor and one-year old son Banks.

ASSISTANT COACH

Brandon Blaney

Recruiting Coordinator/Tight Ends

Brandon Blaney, who was among the first staff appointments made by Kansas head coach Mark Mangino in 2002, enters his sixth season with the Jayhawk football coaching staff. In February of 2006, Blaney was named the team's recruiting coordinator after serving as assistant recruiting coordinator since 2003. He also serves as the team's tight ends coach.

In 2006, Blaney continued to watch the progression of tight end and team captain Derek Fine, who finished third on the team with 28 receptions and five touchdowns. Fine enters the 2007 season as one of the most highly regarded tight ends in both the Big 12 Conference and the nation.

During the 2005 season, Blaney watched as Fine finished fifth on the team with 22 catches for 244 yards and a touchdown. Off the field, Blaney orchestrated one of KU's highest-ranked recruiting classes, which included three of the top four-rated high school players from the state of Kansas.

In 2004, Blaney guided the efforts of tight end Lyonel Anderson who finished fourth on the team with 33 receptions and second with 328 yards receiving. During the spring of 2005, Anderson signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Before arriving in Lawrence, Blaney also played a part on two coaching staffs that led teams (Youngstown State and Oklahoma) to national championships.

Blaney is a 1999 graduate of Youngstown State where he served four years (1995-98) on the coaching staff as a student assistant, working with the offensive line and special teams.

He was on the Youngstown staff in 1997 and played a meaningful role in helping the Penguins win the NCAA Division I-AA national championship.

A native of Lamar, Mo., Blaney worked in the spring of 1999 as a graduate assistant coach at Youngstown State.

He moved to the University of Oklahoma for the 1999 season, and worked alongside Mark Mangino as an offensive line graduate assistant coach for two seasons.

Blaney earned his second national championship ring in helping the Sooners to an undefeated season and the 2000 national championship.

Blaney spent the 2001 season as a graduate assistant, working with the linebackers, at Ohio State where he was reunited with former Youngstown State head coach Jim Tressel.

Blaney and the former Sarah Lingeman, were married July 9, 2006 in Lee, New Hampshire. The couple resides in Lawrence with their dogs, Anzac and Sydney.

ASSISTANT COACH

John Reagan

Offensive Line/Run Game Coordinator

John Reagan, who was hired at Kansas prior to the 2005 football season, begins his third year as KU's offensive line coach and offensive run game coordinator.

The 2006 KU season will go down in history as one of its most successful, due in part to the exploits Reagan's unit accomplished. The rushing offense finished fourth in the Big 12 behind the talented Jon Cornish, who set a new Kansas single-season rushing record with 1,427 yards following the KU line. Reagan saw center and senior captain David Ochoa earn All-Big 12 Second Team honors, as the rushing unit averaged 176.4 yards per game and nearly five yards per carry.

In 2005, Reagan helped execute KU's rushing offense which ended the season averaging 134 yards per game and nearly four yards per carry. The year before his arrival, the Jayhawks averaged just 94.0 yards per game and less than three yards per carry.

Reagan had two offensive linemen -- David Ochoa and Bob Whitaker -- earn All-Big 12 honors during his first year at KU. In addition, Matt Thompson was named second-team Academic All-District by ESPN the Magazine.

Reagan, who spent the 2003-04 seasons as the offensive line coach at the United States Air Force Academy before his arrival in Lawrence, also assisted with several special teams units at AFA, including the extra point and field goal teams.

During Reagan's first year in Colorado Springs, the offensive line featured Falcon players Brett Huyser, Jesse Underbakke and Blane Neufeld, who each earned All-Mountain West Conference honors. In 2004, Reagan took over a young, inexperienced group of linemen and molded them into one of the top offensive lines in the MWC -- two athletes, John Wilson and Ross Weaver earned All-MWC honors.

Reagan was the offensive line coach for one season at Temple before taking his position at Air Force. He directed the defensive line at Temple for two years, before his switch to the opposite side of the ball.
In 2001, Reagan directed Temple's defensive front four to a productive campaign that saw the school ranked 19th nationally in total defense. In addition, defensive tackle Dan Klecko became Temple's first unanimous All-Big East honoree while defensive end Raheem Brock was drafted in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Reagan joined the Owls' coaching staff in February 2000 after instructing the Akron defensive line in 1999. Before coaching at Akron, Reagan was the tight ends coach and offensive tackle coach at Army in 1998. In 1997, he held the same position as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania. Reagan spent the 1996 season as an offensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma State. He began his coaching career in 1994 as the assistant offensive line and fullback coach at Albany, where he remained until joining the Cowboys in 1996.

Reagan, a native of Delmar, N.Y., graduated from Syracuse in 1994 with a dual major in exercise science and sport psychology. He was a three-year starter at center for the Orangemen. As a senior captain in 1993, Reagan earned the Ben Schwartzwalder Most Exemplary Football Player Award after leading his team to a 26-22 victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. While with the Orangemen, he also competed in the 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl when Syracuse defeated Ohio State 24-17. Reagan was twice named to the GTE Academic All-America team (1992-93) and was presented with the Toyota Leadership Award following his senior season.

Reagan and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter, Kaitlyn and a son, Daniel.

ASSISTANT COACH

Tim Beck

Wide Receivers/Pass Game Coordinator

Tim Beck, one of the most respected high school coaches in the state of Texas, joined the Kansas staff in 2005 after serving three seasons as the head football coach at Summit High School in Mansfield, Texas. He coaches KU's wide receivers and was promoted to pass game coordinator in February 2007.

During the 2006 season, Beck's young corps of wide receivers took flight, paced by Dexton Fields, who led the team with 45 receptions. Under Beck's direction, five different Kansas receivers hauled in at least 24 receptions during the 2006 season.

In 2005, Beck oversaw the development of wide receiver Mark Simmons, who led the Jayhawks in catches (44), receiving yards (631), yards per reception (14.3) and yards per game (52.6). Simmons, a native of DeSoto, Texas, finished his playing days as KU's all-time leader in receptions and was second all-time with 2,161 receiving yards.

Beck was the 2003 District Coach of the Year after leading Summit (Texas) High School to its first-ever playoff appearance and district championship. In 2004, SHS advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs after posting a 9-4 record and winning its second straight District 4-5A title. The Jaguars finished the season with the top-ranked defense in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex.

Before accepting the job at Summit High School, Beck was the head coach at R.L. Turner High School in Carrollton, Tamara, Jordan, Tim and Haylie Marie Beck.

Texas, from 1999-01 where he led THS to back-to-back playoff appearances for the first time in 25 years. He guided the team to a 7-4 record in 2000 and a 7-5 mark in 2001, giving the school consecutive winning seasons for the first time in a quarter of a century. Beck was named the district coach of the year in 2000 and helped establish some solid groundwork for the school that had won a total of 13 games in the 10 years prior to his arrival.

Beck served one season as the offensive coordinator at Missouri State where he worked from 1996-98. During his final season with the Bears, the MSU offense racked up 4,542 total yards -- the fourth best single-season mark in school history. He was hired at Missouri State after leading Saguaro High School (Scottsdale, Ariz.) to the 1995 4A state championship -- the first state title in the school's 30-year history. In 1994, Beck was named the state's regional coach of the year after leading the team to an 8-3 record and an appearance in the regional finals. Over his final two and a half years at SHS, his teams posted a record of 23-4. Prior to his arrival at the school, the team's record from 1988-92 was just 5-43.

Beck was a graduate assistant coach at Kansas State from 1991-92 where he served as wide receivers coach and assistant quarterbacks coach. The Wildcats finished the season with a 7-4 overall record and a fourth-place finish in the Big Eight Conference. In 1990, he coached the outside linebackers and punters at Illinois State after serving two seasons as an assistant football coach at Miramar High School in Miramar, Fla.

Beck, a former collegiate quarterback, wide receiver and punter, is a 1988 graduate of Central Florida where he majored in liberal studies. He graduated from Cardinal Mooney High School in his hometown of Youngstown, Ohio, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball.

Beck and his wife, Tamara, have a son, Jordan, and a daughter, Haylie Marie.

Steve Tovar

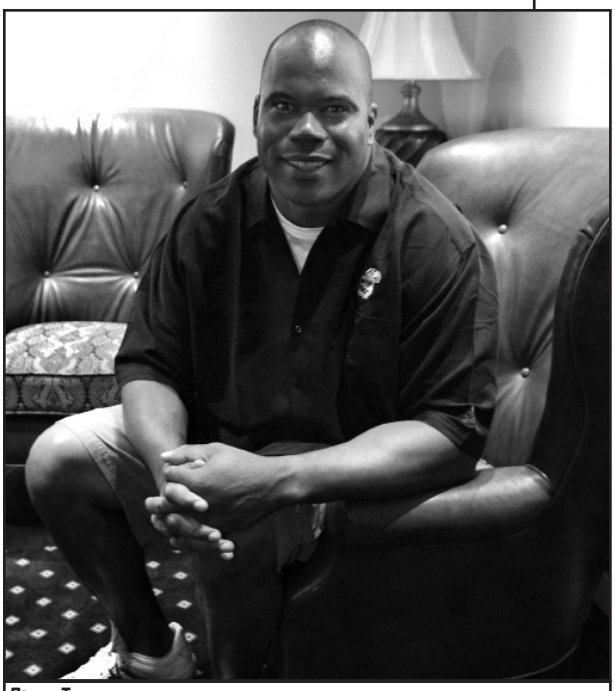

Linebackers

Steve Tovar enters his first season as the linebacker coach for the Jayhawks after spending the 2006 season as a defensive coaching assistant for the Miami Dolphins under Head Coach Nick Saban.

Before working with the Dolphins, Tovar spent two seasons working at the United States Military Academy (2004-05), coaching the linebackers under Bobby Ross. While at Army, he worked closely with All-Conference USA linebacker Greg Washington, who led the nation in tackles. He also worked as defensive coordinator at Upper Arlington High School in Columbus, Ohio.

A native of Elyria, Ohio, Tovar also worked for The Ohio State Athletic Compliance Office in 2002-03, where he consulted student-athletes on issues pertaining to professional athletics, organized recruiting events regarding professional athletics, presented NCAA rules and regulations to student-athletes and assisted in the department's agent education program.

He joined the OSU football program in 2003 as quality control/video intern with the primary duties of evaluating defensive player performance and assisting defensive coaches with game plans.

Steve Tovar.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Tovar enjoyed a successful eight-year playing career in the NFL. A third-round selection by Cincinnati in 1993, Tovar played five years with the Bengals (1993-97), two seasons with the San Diego Chargers (1998, 2000) and one with the Carolina Panthers (1999).

Tovar officially retired in 2001, having served as Cincinnati's defensive team captain throughout his tenure with the team and leading the club in tackles during three of his five seasons. He also was the Chargers' special teams player of the year for both of his seasons with the club.

A graduate of Ohio State, Tovar played in Columbus from 1989-92, finishing fourth in OSU history with 414 tackles, including 213 solo stops and 31 tackles for loss. Tovar was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year his senior year after recording 128 total tackles and was a three time All-Big Ten pick and two-time American Football Coaches Association All-American (1991, 92). For his efforts, Tovar was enshrined into The Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

ASSISTANT COACH

Louie Matsakis

Running Backs/Special Teams Coordinator

Louie Matsakis rejoined the KU football staff for the 2007 season after a one-year stint as special teams coordinator at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio. The Shadyside, Ohio, native also worked at KU during the 2004 and 2005 seasons as quality control coordinator.

On special teams, Matsakis inherits a unit that boasted the best punt return unit in the Big 12, averaging 13.5 yards per return and scoring three touchdowns. The kickoff unit was also a key asset to the Jayhawks' offensive attack in 2006, averaging 21.6 yards per return.

Taking over for former running backs coach Earle Mosley, Matsakis running back corps will be led by Brandon McAnderson and Jake Sharp. McAnderson, who spent his previous three years opening holes for Jon Cornish and other Kansas running backs as a bruising fullback, should see more carries this year, allowing him to punish offenses with his downhill running style. Sharp provides a stark contrast to McAnderson, encompassing a fleet-footed tailback with big-play capability every time he touches the ball.

At Capital, Matsakis guided first team All-OAC and All-American place kicker Matt Spitz and first team All-OAC punt returner Thom Hausler. The Crusaders set a school record for wins in a season with 11 and advanced to the regional finals of the NCAA Division III Championships. Capital was ranked third in the final NCAA Division 3 poll.

In his first stint at KU, Matsakis assisted with the day to day operations and game planning alongside the special teams coordinator. Among his many administrative duties, he performed statistical analysis for the offense and special teams, performed self-scout and opponent scouting reports for the special teams coordinator and was involved in the areas of on-campus recruiting, camps and clinics.

Matsakis also held positions at Texas State University-San Marcos as special teams coordinator during the 2003 season and as special teams intern at Texas Tech University from 2000 to 2002.

At Texas State, Matsakis developed All-Southland Conference punter Cory Elolf, who was ranked seventh nationally and first in the Southland in punting average (43.35 yards per punt). He also worked extensively with the Bobcat offense which finished first in the conference and seventh nationally in total offense with 443.42 yards per game. At Texas Tech, Matsakis worked with special teams and was part of a staff that went to three consecutive bowl games.

Matsakis was a three-year letterman as a place kicker and punter at Emporia State University from 1995-98. He completed a degree in Finance from ESU in May of 2000. He set the ESU single-season record for most extra points made in a season with 47 and set single-game records with most PATs attempted and made with nine.

Matsakis and his wife Cori reside in Lawrence.

ASSISTANT COACH

Je'Ney Jackson

Cornerbacks

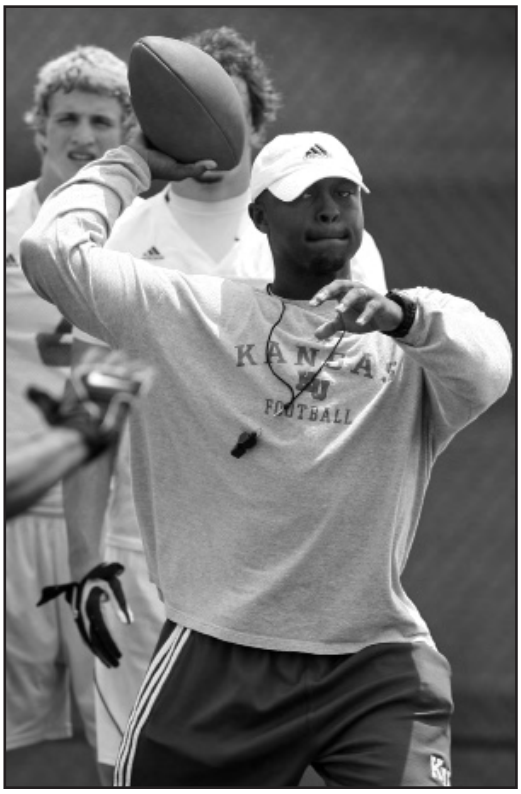

Je'Ney Jackson enters his first season with the Kansas coaching staff after spending the previous two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Jayhawk football program. Jackson will coach cornerbacks in his first year as a full-time assistant coach.

Jackson came to Kansas after working as a strength coach at Wyoming for six years.

An All-WAC cornerback as a senior at Wyoming, Jackson was a four-year letterman for the Cowboys from 1994-97 and earned a biology degree from UW in 1998. He finished his Cowboys' career with 85 unassisted tackles, 129 total tackles and seven interceptions.

As a freshman at UW he played wide receiver, and returned punts and kickoffs. He moved to the defensive side of the ball as a sophomore, starting five games at cornerback and producing 45 tackles and two interceptions. His 98-yard interception return against UTEP is still a Cowboy record.

As a junior, he appeared in all 12 games for the Cowboys at corner. Jackson put together an outstanding senior season as a starter at left corner, earning All-WAC first-team honors. He was second on the team in interceptions with five and also had 37 total tackles and broke up eight passes. He finished his career with 85 unassisted tackles, 129 total tackles and seven interceptions.

Je'Ney, Audra, Bre'Anna, Tre'Sean, and Dante'Jackson.

Jackson had an outstanding prep career while attending Guernsey-Sunrise High School in Wyoming, earning 12 varsity letters in football, basketball and track. Jackson was selected as Wyoming's Football Player of the Year by both USA Today and the Casper Star-Tribune/ Wyoming Radio Network.

Jackson and his wife Audra, have three children, Dante', Tre' Sean and Bre' Anna.

Chris Dawson

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Chris Dawson, a native of Houston, Texas, embarks on his sixth season as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Jayhawk football team. He coordinates all activities within the Anderson Family Strength and Conditioning Center while working directly with strength and nutritional efforts of the football team.

Dawson, who worked the 2001 and 2002 football seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach for the University of Minnesota, was named to the position at KU in February of 2003.

Dawson was hired by Minnesota in February of 2001 after spending five years at Oklahoma, his alma mater. While with the Sooners, Dawson worked with the football and men's basketball teams. Before taking the position at Minnesota, he spent three months with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL and two months with the Dallas Cowboys as a strength and conditioning intern.

Dawson played linebacker for the Sooners from 1992-94 and participated in a pair of postseason contests -- the 1993 John Hancock Bowl and the 1994 Copper Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business management in 1995 and his master's degree in business administration in 1999, both from OU.

Dawson credits his success in coaching to some great mentors at Oklahoma. He learned under Joe Juraszek, who was the strength coach at OU during his playing days and is the current head strength coach for the Dallas Cowboys. He also received valuable guidance from Blair Prince and Jerry Schmidt, the current strength coach at Oklahoma.

Several strength and conditioning coaches who have worked under Dawson -- including Steve Gortmaker (South Carolina), Orlando Smith (South Carolina) and Dwayne Chandler (Minnesota) -- continue to work with NCAA football teams.

Dawson has assisted the strength and conditioning efforts of several NFL players, including all-pro tight end Stephen Alexander (San Diego), William Bartee (Kansas City), Quentin Griffin (Denver), Travian Smith (Oakland) and Roy Williams (Dallas).

George Matsakis

Director of Football Operations

George Matsakis is in his sixth season as the director of football operations at Kansas after working from 2000-01 in the same capacity at the University of Houston.

Matsakis coordinates administrative support for all events and activities surrounding the Jayhawk football program, including budget, game operations, practices, youth football camps, special events and team travel coordination.

Prior to his stint at Houston, Matsakis spent three years as administrative assistant and video coordinator at Wyoming. In addition, Matsakis also served in the video department at Kansas State from 1993-96.

A native of Shadyside, Ohio, Matsakis was a member of the Kansas State football team from 1988-92. His brother Louie joined the KU football coaching staff this summer.

Rajeeb Hossain

On-Campus Recruiting Coordinator

Rajeeb Hossain is entering his fourth season on the Jayhawk staff as the on-campus recruiting coordinator. Hossain helps coordinate official visit weekends along with handling all of the in-house recruiting duties. He also maintains the recruiting website and is in charge of the summer job program.

Hossain is a graduate of Central Oklahoma. Hossain and his wife Juli, reside in Gardner.

MaryKay Ulrich

Associate Dir. of Football Operations

MaryKay Ulrich, a KU graduate, is in her 16th year working in the Jayhawk football office and her sixth season serving as Associate Director of Football Operations after being promoted from her former position as Assistant Director of Football Operations in 2001.

Ulrich assists with many of the daily operations, as well as coordinates the majority of activities surrounding official and unofficial visits of prospective football recruits. She works closely with the recruiting coordinator on all administrative aspects of the recruitment process.

Ulrich and her husband Bret have three children, Tess (13), Natalie (11), and Carter (1).

Dr. Larry Magee

Dir. of Sports Medicine/Team Physician

Dr. Larry Magee, who has worked since 1988 as a team physician at Kansas, currently holds the title of Head Team Physician, supervising the departments of Sports Medicine, Strength and Conditioning, Sports Nutrition and Sports Psychology.

He received his undergraduate and medical degrees from Kansas and is board certified in both family practice and sports medicine. He also serves as an adjunct assistant professor of Health, Sport, and Exercise Sciences at KU.

Magee has worked as a physician for many major sporting events. He served on the medical staff at the 1996 Atlanta Olympics and worked as head physician at the 1995 World University Games in Fukuoka, Japan. Magee also served on the staff at the 1993 and 1991 Olympic Sports Festivals and for the 1996 USA Track & Field Olympic Trials. He was a team physician for the 1997 USA U-22 World Championships in Melbourne, Australia, and the meet physician for the 1998 NCAA Division I and II Men's and Women's Cross Country Championships.

Magee and his wife, Laurie, have a nine-year old son, Gabriel.

FOOTBALL STAFF

Murphy Grant

Head Football Athletic Trainer

Murphy Grant is entering his second season as head football athletic trainer at Kansas. Grant came to KU after five years as the athletic trainer for the men's basketball program at Oklahoma State. He also served as the Cowboys' strength and conditioning coach for two seasons.

Grant began his career as a student assistant at Quincy (Ill.) University, where he was a member of the football team from 1992-96. He graduated with a degree in athletic training in 1997. Murphy then went to Illinois State, where he served as a graduate assistant in the athletic training department while receiving his master's degree in exercise science in 1999. The following summer, he spent one season working with the Boston Red Sox rookie league team.

Prior to arriving at OSU, Murphy served two years as head athletic trainer at Missouri Valley College. Murphy is married the former Amy Dana, who also is a certified athletic trainer. The couple has two sons, Jackson and Gavin. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Grant enjoys spending time with his family and playing golf.

Jeff Himes

Administrative Assistant/Equipment Supervisor

Jeff Himes is in his 20th year as administrative assistant/equipment supervisor for the Jayhawk football team. Himes came to Kansas from Kent State where he was the head equipment manager for three years.

A native of Mogadore, Ohio, Himes received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Kent State in 1983. He earned his master's degree in athletic administration in 1993 from KU. His duties at KU include purchasing and maintaining all equipment for the football team and supervising the staff of managers.

Himes and his wife, Ganis, reside in Lawrence.

Travis Miller

Graduate Assistant Defense

For the second straight year Travis Miller will serve as the defensive graduate assistant at Kansas. Miller joined the KU staff after coaching the defensive line at Independence Community College in 2004 and 2005.

Miller's main area of emphasis is working with defensive coordinator and defensive line coach Bill Young with the KU defensive line. Last year that group was a key in the Jayhawks allowing just 109 yards rushing per game.

Miller was an all-SEK selection in football while prepping at Field Kindley High School in Coffeyville, Kan. He played two seasons collegiately at Independence Community College, where he was an offensive guard.

He then transferred to Kansas State for his final two years of college where he earned a degree in education. Miller is working on a master's degree in sports studies. He and his wife, Jill, reside in Lawrence.

Bill Whittemore

Graduate Assistant Offense

Former KU quarterback Bill Whittemore is entering his second season as a graduate assistant and will once again work with the Jayhawk offense, particularly the wide receivers.

Whittemore was a standout for the Jayhawks in 2002 and 2003 after transferring from Fort Scott CC. In two seasons at KU he threw for 4,051 yards to rank sixth on the school career list and his 2,385 yards as senior ranks third on the KU charts. Whittemore also owns the second-best passing yardage total game in school history after throwing for 422 yards against Colorado in 2003. He still holds a number of school records.

Whittemore earned Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year honors as a junior and followed that up the next year by being named All-Big 12 Third Team.

After graduating from Kansas with a degree in psychology Whittemore spent time with the Atlanta Falcons and New York Jets in their OTAs. He also spent one season playing in the Arena Football League. He coached quarterbacks and defensive backs for one year at his high school alma mater of Brentwood High School in Brentwood, Tenn. He spent the spring of 2006 at UL-Monroe before joining the Jayhawk staff ahead of the 2006 campaign.

Whittemore is working on a master's degree in sports studies.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game #1 - Sept. 2, 2006 at Lawrence, Kan.

Kansas 49, Northwestern State 18

Behind a career-high 140 rushing yards from senior Jon Cornish, Kansas opened the season with a 49-18 victory against Northwestern (La.) State. A crowd of 44,025 - the largest home-opening crowd at Memorial Stadium since 1994 - saw KU win its third-straight season opener under Head Coach Mark Mangino. KU's 49 points were the most in a season opener since 1992. Kerry Meier's debut as Kansas' quarterback saw the redshirt-freshman throw for 118 yards and two touchdowns. Meier also rushed for two scores, including 31-yard scamper to end the scoring at 49-18 with 3:46 to play. He also scored on a one-yard plunge earlier in the fourth quarter and finished with 59 yards rushing. Kansas scored 28-straight points behind two touchdown passes, a punt return and a fumble recovery of a blocked punt to lead Northwestern State 28-6 at halftime. Trailing 6-0, Kansas sophomore Marcus Herford returned a kickoff 88 yards to set up KU's first score of the season. Herford's jaunt was the 10th longest in school history as Kansas took a 7-6 lead on a Kerry Meier 10-yard pass to Marcus Henry with 4:32 in the first quarter. After a three-and-out by the Demons, KU senior Brian Murph returned a punt 70 yards to paydirt to make the score 14-6 with 1:42 to play in the first quarter. With 8:20 remaining in the half, KU sophomore Dexton Fields blocked a Demon punt in the endzone and it was recovered by junior Jeff Foster to make the score 21-6 in favor of the Jayhawks. After a fumble recovery by Kansas senior Eric Washington, Meier hit Murph on a 15-yard fade pass to make the score 28-6 with 6:52 remaining before intermission. KU's first drive of the second half saw Cornish score on a 69-yard run. The running back went on to post his fifth career 100-yard rushing game and also set a personal high with 156 all-purpose yards.

Game #2 - Sept. 9, 2006 at Lawrence, Kan.

Kansas 21, Louisiana-Monroe 19

Behind the efforts of senior running back Jon Cornish and freshman quarterback Kerry Meier, Kansas defeated Louisiana Monroe, 21-19. Cornish tallied 165 total yards, a new career-high, while Meier threw for two touchdowns and scored one on the ground. Cornish carried the ball a career-high 23 times for 103 yards. His consecutive 100-yard performances to open the season makes him the first Jayhawk to do so since June Henley in 1996. Meier, making his second career start, was 16-for-27 for 185 yards and two touchdowns. He connected with sophomore Dexton Fields six times for 39 yards. Fields' six receptions - including an 11-yard touchdown grab in the first quarter - set a new career-high for the Dallas native. The Jayhawks struck in the middle of the first quarter after orchestrating an 11-play drive, which was capped off by an 11-yard pass-and-catch from Meier to Fields. The drive spanned more than five minutes and the Fields' touchdown was the second of his career. With 2:02 left in the opening period, Louisiana Monroe evened the score at 7-7, before Kansas countered the Warhawks score with a four-yard touchdown pass from Meier to sophomore Marcus Henry putting the Jayhawks ahead, 14-7, at halftime. The drive was ignited by Cornish's 46-yard reception, the longest of his Jayhawk career. After forcing a Warhawks punt on their opening drive of the second half, the Jayhawks marched down the field and scored on a 10-yard touchdown scamper by Meier. The drive included several strong runs by Cornish including a 22-yard jaunt. The Warhawks were able to claw back into the game after Lancaster ran for a nine-yard touchdown, to make the score 21-13. However, the Warhawks missed the resulting extra-point. ULM pulled within two points of the Jayhawks after another Lancaster-to-Zacharie touchdown connection for three yards with 3:31 remaining in the fourth quarter. The ensuing two-point conversion attempt failed after Lancaster's toss to Zacharie sailed out of the end zone. Junior running back Brandon McAnderson retrieved ULM's on-side kick, allowing the Jayhawks to run out the clock and preserve the victory. On defense, KU senior Paul Como registered a career-high eight tackles including three behind the line of scrimmage. Sophomore Mike Rivera also added seven tackles to give him 18 for the season.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game #3 - Sept. 15, 2006 at Toledo, Ohio

Toledo 37, Kansas 31 (2 ot)

Kansas suffered its first loss of the season as it dropped a double-overtime decision, 37-31 at Toledo. The KU defense shined in the defeat, limiting the Rockets to just 237 yards of total offense for the game. Linebacker Mike Rivera registered eight tackles to lead the squad and safety Jerome Kemp collected seven tackles while cornerback Aqib Talib, linebacker Eric Washington and linebacker Joe Mortensen each added six tackles for the unit. Freshman quarterback Kerry Meier threw a pair of touchdown passes and ran for another in the first road game of his collegiate career. Tight end Derek Fine had a team-high five receptions for 49 yards while sophomore Marcus Henry hauled in a three passes for a career-high 67 yards, including a 33-yard touchdown grab. The Jayhawks started quickly, scoring on the team's opening possession when Meier scrambled for a 12-yard touchdown run. After a Toledo safety and rushing score, the Jayhawks responded with a two-yard touchdown plunge by fullback Brandon McAnderson. Toledo took a 17-14 lead into halftime after connecting on a fourth-down touchdown reception with under a minute left in the first half. The Jayhawks answered quickly in the second half when defensive end John Larson sacked Rockets quarterback Brandon Summers early in the third quarter for a safety. The Jayhawks regained the lead after the safety when Meier hooked up with Henry on the 36-yard score, making the score 23-17. After the Rockets struck back twice to take a 31-23 lead, Meier drove KU down the field before connecting with wide receiver Dexton Fields on a 20-yard scoring play. Meier successfully converted the two-point attempt, knotting the score at 31. The teams then entered overtime, where the Rockets were unsuccessful on the opening possession. However, Meier fumbled a hand-off to Cornish on the Jayhawks' possession, sending the game into double overtime. In the second overtime, Meier was intercepted and Rockets running back Jalen Parmele scored on a 25-yard run to end the game.

Game #4 - Sept. 23, 2006 at Lawrence, Kan.

Kansas 13, South Florida 7

A solid defensive effort helped Kansas to outlast South Florida 13-7 at Memorial Stadium. KU freshman Justin Thornton intercepted USF quarterback Matt Grothe's final pass as time expired. The Bulls, 3-1, drove to the Kansas 27-yard line and had two endzone pass attempts on the game's final drive. Kansas won its ninth-straight home game limiting USF, of the Big East Conference, to a season-low seven points. The Jayhawks forced three turnovers and limited the Bulls to 113 rushing yards en route to the victory. After a scoreless first half, a crowd of 40,933 saw points put on the board in each of the first three drives of the second stanza. Kansas took the second half kickoff and drove 60 yards before junior Scott Webb gave KU a 3-0 lead with a 37-yard field goal. USF answered on the next possession to take a 7-3 lead on a seven-yard touchdown run by Grothe. The Jayhawks then drove 79 yards in seven plays to take a 10-7 advantage on senior Jon Cornish's two-yard run at the start of the fourth quarter. On USF's ensuing drive, KU's defense forced a punt and the Jayhawks responded with a 47-yard drive that concluded with a Webb 42-yard field goal to make the score 13-7 with nine minutes to play. KU senior quarterback Adam Barmann received his first start of the season and 14th of his career. The Weston, Mo., native was 25-of-35 for 273 yards passing and hit seven different receivers in the game. Cornish recorded his third 100-yard rushing game of the season with 105 yards on a career-high 26 carries. Cornish also had six receptions and 119 all-purpose yards for the contest. The first half was a defensive battle that ended 0-0. It marked the first scoreless first half in a Kansas game since 1980. USF made the field long for Kansas as KU's first three possessions started inside its own five-yard line. KU outgained USF 219-166 in the first half.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game #5 - Sept. 30, 2006 at Lincoln, Neb.

21 Nebraska 39, Kansas 32 (ot)

Senior quarterback Adam Barmann threw for 405 yards, while running back Jon Cornish gained 145 on the ground, but it was not enough as a furious Jayhawk rally fell short at Memorial Stadium on Sept. 30. KU erased a 17-point deficit, but fell to No. 21 Nebraska, 39-32 in overtime. KU's 32 points were the most scored at Nebraska by any KU team since the 1899 squad defeated the Huskers 36-20. Barmann connected on 27 of his final 46 throws for 405 yards and two touchdowns. His 405 yards passing were the fourth-most by any KU quarterback in team history. Trailing 24-7 late in the first half, the Jayhawks scored 19 consecutive points to grab a 25-24 lead. The Jayhawks tied the game with 46 seconds remaining in regulation as Barmann hit wide receiver Brian Murph on a rollout from the Nebraska 26. However, Cody Glenn's 1-yard run in the first overtime proved to be the game-winner when Barmann's fourth down pass from the Nebraska nine fell incomplete. KU took its first lead with 6:32 left in the fourth quarter when Barmann found tight end Derek Fine in the back of the endzone from one yard out. Fine finished the contest with a career-high 84 yards on five catches. The Huskers responded two minutes later when Zac Taylor connected with Frantz Hardy for a 75-yard touchdown, Taylor's third of the game. KU responded, forcing overtime on Barmann's second TD pass of the game with 46 seconds left. Kansas got a 145-yard effort from senior running back Jon Cornish. It marked the fourth time this season that the senior has gained over 100 yards in a game. Starting from its own five-yard line, Kansas put together its longest scoring drive of the season. Barmann hit wide receiver Dexton Fields for gains of 30 and 15 yards and completed a 40-yard strike to Fine. KU outgained the Huskers 558-306 after the first quarter, including 405-257 through the air.

Game #6 - Oct. 7, 2006 at Lawrence, Kan.

Texas A&M 21, Kansas 18

Jon Cornish rushed for 123 yards and Scott Webb hit three field goals, but it was not enough for Kansas (3-3, 0-2 Big 12) to pull out a Homecoming win against Texas A&M (5-1, 1-1 Big 12), as the Jayhawks lost 21-18. Jorvorskie Lane's second touchdown run of the day with 34 seconds remaining, lifted the Aggies to the come-from-behind victory at Memorial Stadium. The Jayhawks took a 7-0 lead on their opening drive when quarterback Adam Barmann hit wide receiver Dexton Fields on a quick out for a six-yard scoring strike. Barmann finished the game 13-of-31 for 127 yards and the score. Cornish, who rushed for over 100 yards in the second half, notched his fifth 100-yard game of the season on 23 carries. The touchdown was set up by a 48-yard reception by junior Brandon McAnderson on a fake punt. McAnderson received a shovel pass from junior Kyle Tucker and raced around the left end to the Texas A&M eight-yard line. McAnderson was KU's top receiver, grabbing three passes for 57 yards. The Jayhawks stretched the lead to 10-0 on Webb's 33-yard field goal in the final minute of the first quarter. Texas A&M responded with a 12-play, 74-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by Lane midway through the first half to make the game 10-7 at halftime. In the second half, the Jayhawks penetrated the Aggies' 25-yard line twice and came away with a pair of Webb field goals. The junior kicker matched a career-high with his three field goals. Webb hit his third field goal of the day, a 28-yard effort, to extend the Jayhawk lead to 18-7 late in the third quarter. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Texas A&M quarterback Stephen McGee brought the Aggies to within five points, 18-13, on a two-yard scoring plunge. However, KU stuffed the Aggie quarterback on the two-point try to hold the lead at five. In the final three minutes, the Aggies punctuated their final drive of the day with Lane's plunge. Tight end Joey Thomas caught the two-point conversion from McGee for the margin of victory. On defense, senior safety Jerome Kemp led the Jayhawks with a career-high 11 tackles and a sack. Freshmen Justin Thornton and Anthony Webb each added 10 tackles while sophomore Mike Rivera had three tackles for a loss.

Game #7 - Oct. 14, 2006 at Lawrence, Kan.

Oklahoma State 42, Kansas 32

LAWRENCE, Kan. -- Oklahoma State scored 42 points in the second half to defeat Kansas, 42-32, at Memorial Stadium in front of a crowd of 41,203. Kansas redshirt-freshman quarterback Kerry Meier threw two first-half touchdown passes -- the first one going to Marcus Herford on a 33-yard strike and the second to junior tight end Derek Fine on a four-yard hookup -- as the Jayhawks took a 14-0 lead into the break. The Jayhawks added to their halftime lead on their opening drive of the second half when Scott Webb converted on a 44-yard field goal following Cowboys quarterback Bobby Reid's fumble, making the score 17-0. The fumble recovery by freshman Justin Thornton was the first of his Jayhawk career. The Cowboys then scored 28 unanswered points behind three touchdown connections from Reid to wide receiver Adarius Bowman, along with a scoring run by Reid to grab a 28-17 lead. The Jayhawks cut into the Cowboy lead after an 11-yard touchdown scamper by junior Brandon McAnderson midway through the fourth quarter. After converting a two-point conversion attempt from Meier to Fine, the Jayhawks drew to within three points at 28-25 before Oklahoma State added two fourth-quarter touchdowns. KU also added a late touchdown from Meier to sophomore Dexton Fields with 1:22 remaining in the game, giving the sophomore receiver his fourth touchdown grab of the year.

Game #8 - Oct. 21, 2006 at Waco, Texas

Baylor 36, Kansas 35

Despite leading 35-17 at halftime and getting a career-high 196 rushing yards from running back Jon Cornish, Kansas fell in the final minutes to Baylor, 36-35. The first half was full of action as KU and BU traded leads four times. The Jayhawks scored a season-high 35 points in the first stanza and led Baylor 35-17 at halftime. After Baylor scored on its opening possession, the Jayhawks tied the game 7-7 on Kerry Meier's endzone-finding 12-yard TD dash. Sophomore linebacker Arist Wright gave Kansas its first lead of the game when he returned an errant Baylor pass 28 yards for his first career touchdown with 6:45 remaining in the first quarter. Following a Baylor field goal, Bear QB Shawn Bell tossed a four-yard touchdown pass to give the home team a 17-14 advantage. However, the Jayhawks scored three unanswered touchdowns to end the half, including a perfect 13-yard pass-and-catch from Meier to Dexton Fields. After a scoreless third quarter, Baylor struck in the fourth period on a 42-yard pass play from Bell to wide receiver Trent Shelton with 9:22 to play. The five-play, 80-yard drive narrowed the KU lead to 35-24. The Bears drew even closer with 4:42 left in the fourth on a four-play, 81-yard drive that set up a four-yard touchdown by running back Paul Mosley. A failed two-point conversion left the score 35-30 in favor of the Jayhawks. On the ensuing kickoff, Baylor appeared to have Kansas pinned on its own one yardline, but an illegal formation by the Bears forced BU to rekick. The Baylor defense held and took over possession with 2:43 remaining after a KU punt. The Bears then went on a 9-play, 58-yard drive the resulted in a 10 yard TD pass from Bell to Dominique Zeigler with 1:08 on the clock. The BU two-point conversion failed, but Baylor nevertheless took a 36-35 lead which stood as the final score.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game #9 - Oct. 28, 2006 at Lawrence, Kan.

Kansas 20, Colorado 15

Freshman Todd Reesing threw two touchdowns and ran for another in his Jayhawk debut as Kansas defeated Colorado, 20-15, in front of 39,313 fans at Memorial Stadium. Trailing by nine at the half, KU scored 20 unanswered points in the second half behind Reesing and senior tailback Jon Cornish, who rushed for 80 yards on 23 carries. With the 80-yard effort Cornish became the ninth KU player to rush for 1,000 yards in a season and the first since 1996. Reesing entered the game in the second half and completed 7-of-11 passes for 105 and two touchdowns and also gained 90 on seven carries. The Jayhawks got on the board at the 4:35 mark in the third quarter when Reesing connected with Cornish on a 22-yard touchdown, making the score 9-7. The pass marked Reesing's first collegiate touchdown pass. On the following possession, Colorado drove inside the KU 30, when sophomore Aqib Talib intercepted Colorado quarterback Bernard Jackson's pass and returned it 59 yards. The Jayhawks struck quickly following the turnover. KU needed just four plays, capped by a three-yard dash by Reesing to give the Jayhawks their first lead of the game, 14-9. KU was able to add to its lead when Reesing accounted for his third touchdown of the day when he hit junior Derek Fine on five-yard touchdown connection, giving the Jayhawks a 20-9 advantage after the two-point conversion failed. The drive was ignited by a 31-yard pass from Reesing to junior Jeff Foster. The Buffaloes were able to respond to cut into the Jayhawk lead when sophomore safety Ryan Walters returned a Reesing fumble 95 yards for a touchdown, making the score 20-15 after the conversion failed. The fumble return came on the play followign a 63-yard run by Reesing, the longest run by a KU quarterback this season. CU had one final chance at the end of the game, but quarterback Bernard Jackson's final heave was caught well short of the endzone as time expired giving KU its first conference victory of the season. Kansas trailed Colorado, 9-0, after the first half behind three Mason Crosby field goals. The Jayhawk defense was able to keep the Buffaloes out of the endzone and limit them to 43 passing yards and 135 total yards in the first half.

Game #10 - Nov. 4, 2006 at Ames, Iowa

Kansas 41, Iowa State 10

Kansas converted four Iowa State turnovers into 20 points as the Jayhawks defeated the Cyclones, 41-10. KU held Iowa State to 33 rushing yards on 30 carries while the Jayhawk offense totaled 403 yards of total offense on 73 plays. Brandon McAnderson added 42 yards and two rushing scores on seven carries. Jonathan Lamb was KU's leading receiver, hauling in five catches for 76 yards, both setting career-highs. Derek Fine snagged four catches for 37 yards and two scores, the first two-touchdown performance of his career. Kerry Meier went 17-of-22 for 199 yards and two touchdown passes on the game. Mike Rivera led the charge for the defense, registering six tackles and one forced fumble. Early in the first quarter, linebacker Joe Mortensen recovered a muffed ISU punt return, his second fumble recovery of the season. Kansas quickly converted the turnover into points when Meier connected with senior wide receiver Brian Murph on 50-yard touchdown pass that made the score, 6-3 with 9:32 left in the first quarter. Kansas continued to force turnovers in the first half as sophomore Aqib Talib picked off his fifth pass of the season with 3:29 remaining in the first quarter. On the subsequent drive, on a fourth-down play, freshman quarterback Todd Reesing found Fine for a 29-yard touchdown connection to make the score, 13-3. Fine reached paydirt again when Meier connected with him on a three-yard pass at 5:23 of the second quarter. After stopping the Cyclones on a fourth-down play inside KU territory late in the second quarter, McAnderson rumbled into the endzone on a four-yard rush to extend Kansas' lead to 27-3 with 23 seconds remaining in the half. Lamb made the key play on the drive, hauling in a 40-yard reception, a career-long, to set up the score. Reesing scored on a one-yard plunge with 6:23 left in the third quarter after the Kansas special teams tackled the ISU punter at the Cyclone one-yard line. After Reesing tossed an interception, the Kansas defense returned the favor on the next play, as Kemp forced an ISU fumble and freshman safety Darrell Stuckey recovered the loose ball. On the subsequent drive, McAnderson scored on a one-yard dive to make the score 41-3 with 11:11 remaining in the game.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game #11 - Nov. 18, 2006 at Lawrence, Kan.

Kansas 39, Kansas State 20

Jon Cornish rushed for a career-high 201 yards and two touchdowns, and the KU defense forced a season-high six turnovers as the Jayhawks downed in-state rival Kansas State, 39-20, in front of a Memorial Stadium-record 51,821 fans in the 104th edition of the Sunflower Showdown. Cornish became the first Jayhawk to rush for more than 200 yards in a game since the 2001 season. The tailback scored his seventh touchdown of the season late in the first half to give the Jayhawks a 10-3 lead. The score was set up by KSU's first turnover, an Aqib Talib interception and 23-yard return. Junior kicker Scott Webb added to the lead in the final minute of the quarter with a career-long 49-yard field goal. Webb's kick was set up by Brorsen's recovery of a Josh Freeman fumble at midfield. Kansas took a 20-10 lead into the half when Brorson recovered another Freeman fumble, this time in the end zone. The KU defense sacked Freeman five times and intercepted the KSU signal caller three times in the game. KU took advantage of more K-State miscues in the fourth quarter. With the Wildcats trailing by 10 and driving, Anthony Webb intercepted a screen pass at midfield and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. It was Webb's second interception of the game and the second defensive touchdown of the game for the Jayhawks. Fittingly, the Jayhawk defense sealed the game late in the fourth quarter. With the Wildcats driving, KU's Jeff Wheeler forced Freeman's third fumble of the game, and senior Wayne Wilder returned the ball 43 yards to the KSU 12. The turnover set up Cornish's second touchdown run of the day, a 12-yard misdirection play off right tackle. For the game, KU quarterback Kerry Meier completed 11-of-23 passes for 108 yards, while sophomore wide receiver Dexton Fields caught seven balls for 72 yards. Brorson collected a career-high 10 tackles, including three tackles-for-loss, two sacks and two fumble recoveries.

Game #12 - Nov. 25, 2006 at Columbia, Mo.

Missouri 42, Kansas 17

Senior running back Jon Cornish racked up 126 rushing yards to become KU's all-time single season rushing leader, but it wasn't enough as Kansas fell to Missouri 42-17. KU finished the regular season 6-6 overall and 3-5 in the Big 12, while Missouri moved to 8-4 overall and 4-4 in the league. Cornish, a native of New Westminster, B.C., carried the ball 15 times and averaged 8.4 yards per carry, including a 42-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter. MU jumped to a 13-0 lead early in the game, thanks to a pair of field goals from placekicker Jeff Wolfert and a 74-yard touchdown pass from Chase Daniel to Jared Perry. Cornish cut the Tiger lead to 13-7 when he scored on an option play around the left end with one minute remaining in the first quarter. After trailing 20-7 at halftime, the Jayhawks cut the lead to three points thanks to a 37-yard Scott Webb field goal and a 42-yard TD reception from freshman quarterback Kerry Meier to sophomore Aqib Talib. However, that was a close as the Jayhawks could get as an effective Missouri offense rattled off three straight touchdowns and added a field goal to seal the win. Sophomore linebackers Joe Mortensen and Mike Rivera led the defensive effort with 12 and 10 tackles, respectively. Talib, who entered the game as the nation's leader in passes defended, finished the contest with four pass breakups. On special teams, KU kick returner Marcus Herford had 158 return yards on six returns to move his school-record single season total to 757 yards.

ALL-AMERICANS

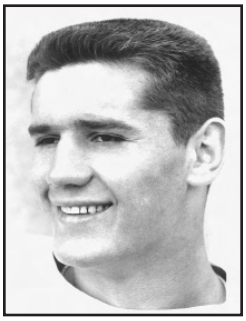

Ray Evans • QB/RB/DB
1947 All-American

Ray Evans, KU's first All-America selection (along with Otto Schnellbacher), qualifies as one of the greatest athletes in Kansas history. Evans is the only player in NCAA history to lead the nation in both passing (1,117 yards) and interceptions (10) in the same season (1942). His single-season interception mark, in fact, still remains a KU record. In addition to being an All-American in football, Evans was also a two-time selection as a Helms Foundation basketball All-American for head coach Phog Allen. He is the only athlete in KU history to have both his football jersey number (42) and basketball jersey (15) retired. Evans was a key performer in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-1-2 record, a first-place tie in the Big Six Conference and a spot in the 1948 Orange Bowl his senior season. Evans once owned the NCAA record of consecutive passing attempts (60) without an interception. He played professionally for one season with Pittsburgh.

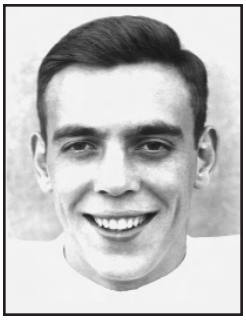

Otto Schnellbacher • WR
1947 All-American

Known as the "Double Threat from Sublette," Otto Schnellbacher excelled during his days as an athlete at Kansas in both football and basketball. Schnellbacher served as a team co-captain of the 1947 Jayhawk team that won a share of the conference title and earned a spot in the Orange Bowl. He is one of just three KU athletes to serve as a captain in both football and basketball. A two-time All-Big Six selection, Schnellbacher was credited with 58 career pass receptions for 1,069 yards and both marks stood as school records for 22 years. He averaged 18.4 yards per reception. Schnellbacher was a regular in 1942 and had his career put on hold during World War II. A four-time all-conference selection in basketball, Schnellbacher played both football and basketball professionally. He played football four seasons with the New York Yankees of the All-America Football Conference and the New York Giants of the NFL. He intercepted 34 passes and was named All-Pro defensive back three times before retiring after the 1951 season.

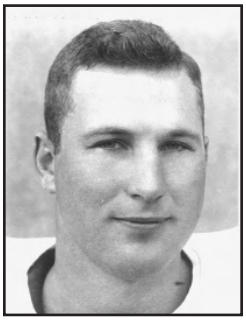

George Mrkonic • OT/DT/P
1951 All-American

George Mrkonic teamed with Oliver Spencer to anchor one of the great lines in Kansas football history during the early 1950s. Mrkonic, a two-time (1950-51) all-conference selection, played left guard on offense and defensive tackle. Mrkonic also handled punting duties during his KU career and led the Jayhawks in punting statistics in 1951. During his three years in the lineup, Kansas compiled a combined 21-9 record, including an 8-2 mark in 1951 and 7-3 record in 1952. Mrkonic was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game in 1952 and had a brief stint in professional football as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. He also played one season in the Canadian Football League.

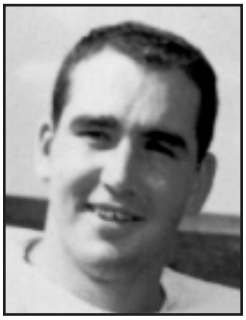

Gil Reich • QB/HB/DB
1952 All-American

Although he played just one season at Kansas after transferring from the United States Military Academy, Gil Reich quickly established himself as one of the most determined performers in Jayhawk history. He was a standout as a cornerback, excelling in run support and as a punt returner. Reich earned all-conference and All-America honors for his performance as a defensive back. In addition, Reich split time as the starting quarterback with Jerry Robertson. He accounted for 428 yards in total offense and was credited with five touchdown passes. He averaged 17.2 yards on 19 punt returns and also served as the Jayhawks' punter and kicked extra points. Reich was also a two-sport standout, playing a significant role on the Jayhawks' 1952-53 basketball team. As a starting guard, Reich helped direct the Jayhawks to the 1953 National Championship game -- a 69-68 loss to Indiana.

Oliver Spencer • OT
1952 All-American

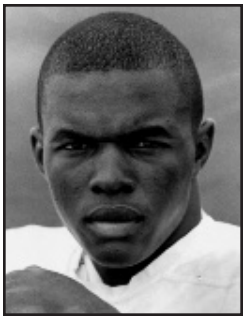

A dominating blocker and outstanding athlete, Spencer and teammate George Mrkonic were recognized as two of college football's premier linemen during the early 1950s. Spencer excelled at right offensive tackle, helping the Jayhawks to a combined 15-5 mark during his two seasons as a regular on the offensive front. As a sophomore, Spencer was a backup at KU behind future pro football hall of famer Mike McCormack. Following his senior season, Spencer was selected to play in both the East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl. He played in the National Football League for the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers from 1953-61, and served as an offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders for 19 seasons (1962-79).

John Hadl • QB/HB/P/DB
1960-61 All-American

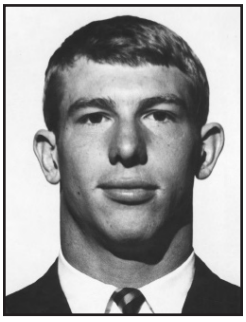

John Hadl easily represents one of the greatest all-around performers in Kansas history. The Jayhawks' first two-time All-America selection, Hadl excelled in the Jayhawk offense as a quarterback and part-time halfback. He was also a highly effective defensive back, return specialist and one of the nation's top punters during his three-year career. His jersey No. 21 is one of just three retired in Kansas football history. A three-time all-conference selection, Hadl ended his career with 1,281 yards passing and 1,016 yards rushing. He still holds the school record for longest interception return (98 yards vs. TCU in 1959) and longest punt (94 yards vs. Oklahoma in 1959, third longest in NCAA history). Hadl, who led the nation in punting in 1959 with a 45.6 average, was a standout on some of KU's great teams. The Jayhawks were a combined 14-5-2 his junior and senior seasons with Hadl at the controls and ranked nationally in the top 20 each season. He concluded his senior season by leading KU to a 33-7 win over Rice in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Hadl was named most valuable player in the East-West Shrine game and the College All-Star Game. Hadl enjoyed a 16-year career in the NFL, passing for 33,513 yards. He was recognized as the NFL Man of the Year in 1971 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1994. Following a successful career in coaching, Hadl moved into administration and currently serves as associate athletics director at his alma mater.

ALL-AMERICANS

Gale Sayers • RB
1963-64 All-American

Gale Sayers, the "Kansas Comet," established himself throughout his collegiate and professional career as one of the great running backs in the history of football. A two-time All-America selection for the Jayhawks, Sayers concluded his KU career with 2,675 yards rushing and 3,917 all-purpose yards. Sayers led KU in rushing, touchdowns and kickoff returns all three years he was in the lineup. He also led the team in receiving and punt returns as a junior and senior. Sayers became the first player in NCAA Division IA history to record a 99-yard run when he broke loose against Nebraska in Lincoln during the 1963 season. He also had a 96-yard kickoff return in a 15-14 upset of Oklahoma his senior season. Sayers was a first round draft pick of the Chicago Bears (and Kansas City Chiefs) and had an abbreviated seven-year NFL career that was cut short by a knee injury. He led the league in rushing in 1966 and 1969. He retired in 1972 with a career total of 4,956 rushing yards. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977 at age 34, the youngest person ever selected. He served as an assistant athletics director at his alma mater from 1972-76.

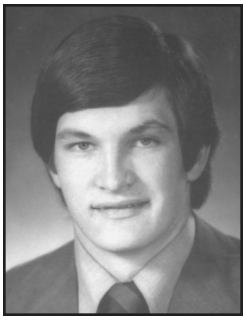

Bobby Douglass • QB
1968 All-American

Twice (1967-68) selected All-Big Eight Conference, Douglass was named to both United Press International (UPI) and Kodak All-America teams in 1968. Douglass, in his senior season, directed the Pepper Rodgers-coached Jayhawks to a 9-2 record, a share of the Big Eight Conference title and a spot in the 1969 Orange Bowl. Douglass passed for 1,316 yards and 12 touchdowns his final year as a Jayhawk. He passed for TDs in six consecutive games in 1968 which represents a school record. He ranks eighth all-time in career passing yardage with 2,817 yards. His 3,832 yards in total offense qualifies as the ninth-best mark in KU history and he was responsible for 39 touchdowns during his career, a mark that ranks fifth on KU's all-time listing. Douglass was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, American Bowl and the College All-Star game in Chicago following his senior season. He earned Most Valuable Player honors in the American Bowl. Douglass played professionally in the NFL for 13 years with Chicago, San Diego, New Orleans and Green Bay.

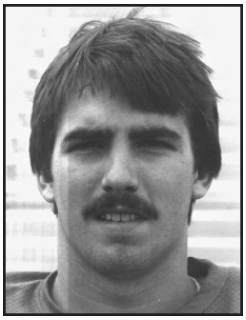

John Zook • DE
1968 All-American

A three-year letterman and two-time All-Big Eight Conference selection, John Zook anchored one of the top defensive units in Kansas football history. Zook earned All-America honors in 1968 as the defensive standout on a Kansas team that finished with a 9-2 record, shared the conference championship and faced Penn State in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks were ranked sixth nationally in the final Associated Press poll -- Zook's senior season. He finished his career with 202 total tackles, which ranks as the fourth-best mark among defensive linemen in school history. "He never played but full speed from snap one to snap 100. He was the most full-speed player on every snap that you could imagine," said Pepper Rodgers.

David Jaynes • QB
1973 All-American

David Jaynes brought a lethal arm to the Kansas offense in the early 1970s and broke virtually every season and career passing mark in the Jayhawk record book. A highly recruited high school quarterback at nearby Bonner Springs, Jaynes concluded his career ranked No. 1 all-time in passing yardage (a mark later broken by Frank Seurer) with 5,132 yards. His 35 career passing touchdowns still stands as a school record. Jaynes, who earned All-America honors in 1973, had his greatest game as a senior in 1973 with a school-record performance against Tennessee in Knoxville. Jaynes connected on 35 of 58 attempts for 394 yards. "I've never seen him have a better day in his life," said head coach Don Fambrough. Jaynes directed the Jayhawks to a 7-4-1 record his senior year, including a trip to the Liberty Bowl. Jaynes, who led KU in passing for three consecutive seasons, finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1973.

Bruce Kallmeyer • PK
1983 All-American

Bruce Kallmeyer is regarded as one of the most potent offensive weapons in Kansas history thanks to his talents as a placekicker. Kallmeyer concluded his four-year Jayhawk career with single-season marks of field goals made (24), attempted (29) and ranks first all-time in career field goal percentage (77.9). Kallmeyer also established new standards in the Kansas record book for most field goals in a game (5) which he recorded twice in his career, against Nebraska in 1981 and Wichita State in 1983. Kallmeyer also had four field goals in the Jayhawks' upset win over Southern California in 1983. Kallmeyer, who had a career-long 57-yard field goal against Iowa State as a senior, ranks third all-time in scoring with 233 points. His 98 points in 1983 qualifies as the second-best single-season mark in KU history and his 21 points against Wichita State in the same season represents the most single-game points by a KU kicker in history.

THE WILLIE PLESS TACKLER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Willie Pless, the all-time leading tackler at Kansas and the Big Eight, was honored in 1985 with the establishment of an annual award in his name. The Willie Pless Tackler of the Year Award is presented to the KU leader in tackles each season. The award was established as a gift from Gene, Bernie and Todd Morgan of Kansas City. The Morgans worked with Chuck Vogt of All-Star Trophy in Kansas City in the creation of the total design concept of the award.

JAYHAWKS TO REMEMBER

Fielding H. Yost (1899)

Fielding H. Yost became most well-known for his "Point-a-Minute" teams at the University of Michigan in the early part of the 1900s but he began to develop his reputation at the University of Kansas. After spending two one-season terms at Ohio Wesleyan (1897) and Nebraska (1898), Yost coached the Jayhawks for only one season and left an impression not only on his players but also the opponents. In 1899, Yost's Jayhawks posted a perfect 10-0 record, which in more than 100 years of Kansas football stands as one of only two perfect seasons. During that season Kansas outscored opponents 280-37, averaging 28 points per game. After Kansas, Yost went on to coach at Stanford (1900) and Michigan (1901-23, 1925-26). At Michigan, his Wolverines played 56 consecutive games without a loss, including 29 consecutive victories. In 1902, his Michigan team beat Stanford, 49-0, in the Rose Bowl. A 1951 inductee into the College Football Foundation Hall of Fame, he was elected to the Michigan Hall of Honor in 1979.

Dr. John H. Outland (1901)

Dr. John H. Outland left his mark both on the University of Kansas and college football. Outland attended Kansas for just two years (1893-94) before transferring to the University of Pennsylvania to continue his medical studies. At Penn, Outland was named to Walter Camp's All-America Eleven one year as a defensive lineman, the other year as a fullback. Outland is one of only two players in history to be All-America at two positions (the other was Bronko Nagurski of Minnesota). In 1901, Outland served as head coach of the Kansas football team when the Jayhawks posted a 3-5-2 record. After going on to a successful career as a surgeon in the Kansas City area when his football days were over, Outland wanted to do something about the interior lineman's lack of recognition. In 1946, the Football Writer's Association of America presented the first Outland Trophy to Notre Dame's George Connor. While Outland was a student at Pennsylvania, the Penn Relays were founded and it was then he conceived the idea of a similar event in Kansas. In 1920, he approached Kansas athletics director Dr. F.C. "Phog" Allen with his idea and in 1923 the first running of the Kansas Relays was held.

George Sauer (1946-47)

KU's 24th football coach posted a 15-3-3 record in his two seasons as the Jayhawks' mentor. The former All-America fullback at Nebraska led Kansas to two-straight Big Six Championships and to the 1948 Orange Bowl. In 1954, he was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame. During World War II he served 18 months on board the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Enterprise and attained the rank of lieutenant colonel. His coaching career included stops at New Hampshire (1937-42), Navy (1948-49) and Baylor (1950-56). Sauer also served as Athletics Director at Baylor from 1950-60 before moving on to the professional ranks. In 1961 he became General Manager of the fledgling New York Titans (later the New York Jets). As director of player personnel from 1962-69 he built the franchise into a Super Bowl winner. In 1976 he was elected to the Kansas Hall of Fame.

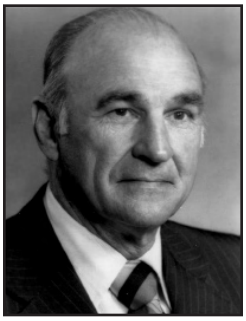

Jules Verne (J.V.) Sikes (1948-53)

Some have called J.V. Sikes' teams the most exciting in Kansas history. Running a pass-oriented offense, Sikes recorded a 35-25 mark in his six years as the Jayhawks' boss. In 1948, his first season as KU's head coach, he led the Jayhawks to a 7-3 record, including a victory over Nebraska. After the 1953 season, Sikes became the head coach at East Texas State. Sikes remained head coach of ETSU until his death at the age of 59 in 1964. At ETSU he posted a 63-33-4 record in 10 seasons. In 1957 and 1958, he led ETSU to the Tangerine Bowl. In 1965, ETSU named its highest football award the J.V. Sikes Award. In 1978, he was elected as a charter member of the ETSU Hall of Fame. A graduate of Texas A&M, Sikes was a three-sport star for the Aggies and was inducted into the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1967. After college, Sikes played professional baseball and advanced as far as the Texas League.

Jack Mitchell (1958-66)

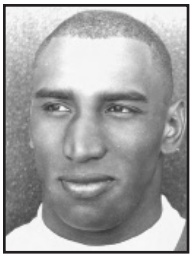

A native of Arkansas City, Kan., Jack Mitchell is tied with Glen Mason as holding the longest term of any head football coach in Kansas history. In his nine-year (1958-66) stint as head coach he recorded 44 wins, 42 losses and five ties. Under Mitchell's guidance, the Jayhawks won their first conference title since 1930 in 1960 (the title was later revoked when league officials ordered Kansas to forfeit wins over Colorado and Missouri). His 1961 team won Kansas' first bowl game by routing Rice, 35-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl. During his coaching career he coached five All-Americans and had 16 of his former players go on to play professionally. An All-American quarterback at Oklahoma, Mitchell's trademark was his courage and ability to make quick personnel changes and tactical innovations. Before coming to Kansas, Mitchell spent two years (1953-54) as the head coach at the University of Wichita (now Wichita State University) and three years (1955-57) at the University of Arkansas. His teams won or tied for a conference championship in every league he coached.

Don Fambrough (1971-74, 79-82)

Of the 10 bowl games the University of Kansas has participated in, Don Fambrough has played or coached in five of them. As a player at Kansas, Fambrough earned All-Big Six honors in 1946 and 1947. At the conclusion of the 1947 season he helped lead the team to the Orange Bowl. When the Lawrence Journal World polled Jayhawk fans to select an all-time team to help commemorate college football's centennial year Fambrough was a first-team choice at guard. After graduating he continued his association with Kansas football by serving as a graduate assistant on the Jayhawk coaching staff under J.V. Sikes. When he became head coach of the Jayhawks in 1971 he had served 19 years as an assistant coach under Sikes, Jack Mitchell and Pepper Rodgers. In just his third season as head coach he led the team to the 1973 Liberty Bowl. After the 1974 season he became Assistant Director of the Williams Fund where he remained until accepting the reigns of the football program again in 1979. In 1981 he coached the Jayhawks to the Hall of Fame Bowl, the same year he was voted the Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year.

JAYHAWKS TO REMEMBER

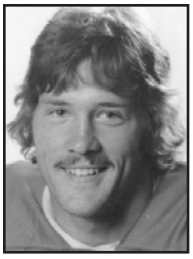

Curtis McClinton (1959-61)
Fullback

Curtis McClinton brought versatility to the University of Kansas from his native Wichita, Kan. As a Jayhawk, McClinton was named to The Sporting News All-America team and to the Pro Scouts' All-America team in 1961. He was also a three-time All-Big Eight selection. All three years at Kansas he was the Big Eight champion in the hurdles for the track team. Although he played primarily as a blocking back, he still ranks 21st on KU's all-time career rushing list with 1,377 yards. In 1959 he was the leading rusher on the team. Before going on to a professional career he played in the East-West Shrine game, the Hula Bowl and the All-Star game. A 14th-round draft pick of the Dallas Texans (later the Kansas City Chiefs), McClinton went on to earn Rookie of the Year honors. In 1963 he was selected as the Most Valuable Player of the American Football League All-Star game. In 1969, he was a member of the Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs. He was selected to the all-time KU team by Jayhawk fans to commemorate the centennial of college football in 1999. During the 2004 season, McClinton was added to the Memorial Stadium Ring of Honor.

John Riggins (1968-70)
Fullback

The second of three members of the Riggins family to play in the backfield for the Jayhawks in the late 60s and early 70s, John Riggins was one of the hardest runners in football history. Known as "The Diesel," he led the Jayhawks in rushing from 1968-70 and currently ranks fifth on KU's all-time career rushing charts with 2,659 yards. Riggins ranks in a tie for second on KU's all-time charts for rushing touchdowns in a season with 14 in 1970, fourth on the season rushing yardage list with 1,131 yards in 1970 and 15th on KU's charts for total offense in a career with 2,659 yards. Although he was recognized with All-Big Eight honors twice at Kansas, Riggins went on to accomplish much more in the pros. A first-round selection (sixth pick overall) of the New York Jets in 1971, he joined the Washington Redskins in 1976 and helped lead them to the Super Bowl three times. In Super Bowl XVII he broke away for a 43-yard run that won the game for the Redskins and earned him Most Valuable Player honors. An inductee of the Ring of Honor at Washington's RFK Stadium, Riggins was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1992, his first year of eligibility. He was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

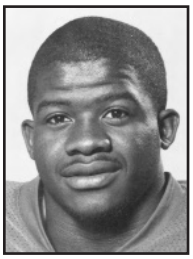

Nolan Cromwell (1973-76)
Safety/Quarterback

Nolan Cromwell, the Wichita Eagle's high school football player of the decade for the 1970s, was inducted into KU's Ring of Honor during the 2005 season. In his four years in Lawrence he proved his versatility. As a freshman in 1973 he was the starting safety in the Liberty Bowl. After being a two-year starter at safety he made the move to quarterback where he broke several KU, Big Eight and NCAA records for rushing by a quarterback. Despite playing in just 18 games on offense at Kansas, he is 13th on the all-time rushing charts and is the top rushing quarterback. The 1975 Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year ran for 1,124 yards that year, the third highest in NCAA history at the time. An honorable-mention All-American on the gridiron, Cromwell earned All-America honors on the track while setting KU records in the 600 and 400 yard runs, the intermediate hurdles and the decathlon. After leaving Kansas he was a second-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Rams where he played safety until 1988. Continuing his prowess on the football field he was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Year in 1980 and was selected to participate in the Pro Bowl. He is a member of the Seattle Seahawks coaching staff.

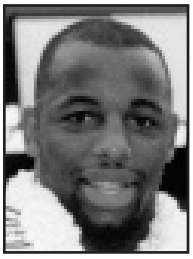

Willie Pless (1982-85)
Linebacker

Pless was one of the hardest workers on the Jayhawk squad when he roamed the turf at Memorial Stadium in the 1980s. Following his junior and senior campaigns he earned the "110-Percent Award" as selected by his teammates. The three-time All-Big Eight selection is KU's all-time leading tackler for a single season (206) and career (633). He ended his career at Kansas as the Big Eight's all-time leading tackler. In 1985 he was honored with the establishment of an annual award in his name that is presented to the KU leader in tackles and assists each season. A 1985 preseason Playboy All-American, Pless was a second-team Associated Press All-American in 1984. Invited to play in the 1985 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic, he earned defensive MVP honors at that game. He worked hard in the classroom earning GTE Region VII Academic All-America honors in 1985. A member of the Big Eight's all-decade team, he was also a member of the Big Eight All-American team in 1985. After his college career, he went on to have a successful career in the Canadian Football League. In 1994 Pless became the CFL's career tackles leader. Pless was inducted into the KU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000 and the CFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

Tony Sands (1988-91)
Running Back

Although small in stature, the 5-6 running back created a large presence on the gridiron. The 1991 Big Eight Conference Offensive Player of the Year set or tied 17 Kansas rushing or scoring records during his career including most yards in a game (396), season (1,479) and career (3,788). In his final home game "Tuxedo Tony" rushed for an NCAA single-game record (since broken) 396 yards, and his 58 rushing attempts also established an NCAA record. At the conclusion of his career he ranked at the top of KU's and eighth on the Big Eight's all-time career rushing charts with 3,788 yards. During his four-year career at Kansas he had 17 games in which he rushed for 100 or more yards. A first-team All-Big Eight selection, he earned third-team Associated Press All-America honors his senior year. At the conclusion of his college career he was selected to play in the Hula Bowl and the East-West College All-Star game.

Dana Stubblefield (1990-92)
Defensive End

An integral member of one of the best defensive lines in Kansas history, Stubblefield earned first-team All-America honors from College & Pro Football Weekly and second-team honors from the Associated Press and Football News following his senior year. The Cleves, Ohio, native teamed up with Gilbert Brown, Chris Maumalanga and Kyle Moore to wreak havoc on opposing quarterbacks. During his three-year career he recorded 19 quarterback sacks including 10 in 1991. As a team captain in 1992, he helped lead the Jayhawks to the Aloha Bowl where he was named Most Valuable Player. He finished his career at Kansas ranking among the Jayhawks' all-time leaders in total tackles (tied for sixth with 168), sacks (fourth with 17) and tackles for loss (tied for fifth with 30). Stubblefield was named first-team All-Big Eight following his junior and senior campaigns. A first-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers, Stubblefield earned Defensive Newcomer of the Year honors his rookie season. He finished his career ranked among the Jayhawks' all-time leaders in total tackles for interior linemen (168) and is currently fourth in sacks. An All-Pro performer in the NFL, Stubblefield most recently played for the Oakland Raiders.

BOWL SUMMARIES

1948 Orange Bowl

Jan. 1, 1948 -- Miami, Fla.
Georgia Tech 20, Kansas 14

Trailing 20-14 to Georgia Tech with the final minutes ticking away, Kansas appeared ready to upset the favored Engineers in the 14th annual Orange Bowl only to have a lost fumble at the two-foot line dash all hopes.

All three Georgia Tech touchdowns came via the pass. Included were 24 and five-yard strikes from quarterback Jim Still to Jim Patton and a 15-yard score from Still to Billy Queen.

Georgia Tech scored first on the 24-yard pass play to take a 7-0 lead in the second quarter. Kansas answered however, with a 65-yard drive climaxed by Ray Evans' 12-yard scoring burst and the extra point by Don Fambrough.

The third quarter proved pivotal, however, as Georgia Tech scored twice to take a 20-7 lead into the final stanza. Finding it difficult to move on the ground, Tech resorted to the airways. As a result, Still set an Orange Bowl record for most touchdown passes and best passing percentage, a .769 mark based on 10 completions in 13 attempts.

The Jayhawks were not finished, however. A long pass from quarterback Bill Hogan to end Bryan Sperry moved the ball to the Georgia Tech 12. Hogan then lobbed a 12-yard scoring pass to Evans. Soon afterwards Dick Monroe of Kansas recovered a Georgia Tech fumble at the Tech 42. Three plays later, Hogan passed complete to end Otto Schnellbacher putting the ball at the 26. Evans then sliced off three yards before pitching to Schnellbacher who was forced out at the 10. Evans then bolted nine yards to the one and it appeared Kansas was ready to upset the Engineers.

But then disaster struck. Quarterback Lynne McNutt, attempting to sneak it in for the game-tying touchdown, lost the ball and the officials ruled that Tech's Rollo Phillips came up with it. Controversy raged as to whether McNutt actually fumbled or Phillips took it away from him amidst the pileup at the goal line.

The game marked the end of the playing careers of two KU All-Americans — end Otto Schnellbacher and halfback Ray Evans. The pair represented the first All-Americans ever named at Kansas. Schnellbacher finished his career at KU with 58 pass receptions good for 1,069 yards. Both the number of receptions and total yards stood as KU school records for more than 20 years.

Evans finished his career with 3,799 yards of total offense including 1,431 rushing and 2,368 passing. The total yards and passing yardage also stood as school records for more than 20 years.

1961 Bluebonnet Bowl

Dec. 16, 1961 -- Houston, Texas
Kansas 33, Rice 7

Sparked by a 41-yard run by quarterback John Hadl out of deep punt formation late in the first half, Kansas swept by Rice amidst a steady rain, 33-7, to claim the third annual Bluebonnet Bowl.

Trailing 7-6 at the time and facing a fourth-and-six situation from the KU 40, Hadl faked the punt and raced 41 yards before being dropped at the Rice 19. Two plays later fullback Ken Coleman crashed over from the one to give the Jayhawks a 12-7 halftime lead. That proved to be the impetus for Kansas as it thoroughly dominated the second half against the homestanding Owls.

The Jayhawks controlled the ball in the second half scoring on drives of 50, 36 and 68 yards while finishing the day with 76 offensive plays compared to only 47 for Rice.

Kansas was equally effective on the ground and in the air. Hadl finished with seven completions in 10 attempts for 64 yards. Coleman, voted the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Performer, finished with 107 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

The Jayhawks scored first with 5:05 remaining in the initial quarter when Coleman went over from a yard out. It climaxed a 59-yard, nine-play drive. The extra point attempt by Bill Barnes was blocked.

Rice answered that score, however, with just 45 seconds left in the first quarter when quarterback Randy Kerbow completed a five-yard scoring pass to flanker Johnny Burrell. The extra point was good to put the Owls on top for the one and only time. That set the stage for Hadl's heroics and the Kansas domination.

Two Kansas players — Hadl and fullback Curtis McClinton — signed professional contracts on the field immediately after the game. Hadl signed with the San Diego Chargers and McClinton with the Dallas Texans.

Controversy surrounded Hadl prior to the game when it was alleged that he had already signed a professional contract with the Chargers thus making him ineligible. To clear the air he signed an affidavit saying he had not signed.

Hadl finished his career with 2,382 yards total offense — 1,341 passing and 1,041 rushing. At the time that figure ranked second only to All-American Ray Evans who 14 years earlier had led Kansas to its first bowl appearance.

McClinton concluded his career with 1,414 yards rushing. At the time that figure was the fourth best in Kansas history behind Charlie Hoag, Homer Floyd and Evans.

BOWL SUMMARIES

1969 Orange Bowl
Jan. 1, 1969 -- Miami, Fla.
Penn State 15, Kansas 14

In the never-to-be-forgotten "Twelfth Man Game," Penn State shaded Kansas, 15-14, with a second-chance two-point conversion in the waning seconds of the 35th annual Orange Bowl Classic.

The Jayhawks apparently had won the game when they broke up Chuck Burkhart's conversion pass following Penn State's frantic touchdown with just 15 seconds remaining.

However, it was ruled Kansas had 12 men on the field and the Nittany Lions received another chance — this time from only one and one-half yards instead of three. On that attempt Bob Campbell's thrust at the left side of his line produced the winning margin.

Kansas, playing in its third bowl game, took a 14-7 lead early in the fourth quarter when Donnie Shanklin returned a punt 46 yards to the seven to set up a touchdown by John Riggins.

The Jayhawks nursed the lead for nearly 12 minutes and once missed a first down by inches at the Penn State five while driving for what would have been a wrap-up touchdown.

The game still appeared to be under control when Kansas kicked to the Nittany Lions at the 50 with 1:16 remaining. But on the next play Burkhart hit Campbell with a 47-yard pass that KU defender Billy Hunt lost in the lights. It took three plays to score from the three, but Burkhart finally got across on a bootleg play around left end to set the stage for the hectic windup.

Kansas scored in the opening quarter when Mike Reeves capped a nine-play, 45-yard drive by ramming over from the two. Pat Hutchens set the drive in motion by intercepting Burkhart's pass.

Shanklin, who gained 122 yards while handling the ball 19 times on rushes, kick returns and pass receptions, was voted the outstanding performer. His Orange Bowl production pushed Shanklin's career all-purpose running aggregate to 3,506 yards.

The game was played before 77,719 fans, in addition to, a national television audience. The 77,719 represented the second largest crowd ever to watch a Kansas football game.

The game also marked the conclusion of careers for two Kansas All-Americans — quarterback Bobby Douglass and defensive end John Zook. The 1968 season was the last to see Kansas have two All-Americans in one season.

1973 Liberty Bowl
Dec. 17, 1973 -- Memphis, Tenn.
North Carolina State 31, Kansas 18

Playing in a bowl game for the fourth time in its history, Kansas was upset by North Carolina State, 31-18, in the 15th annual Liberty Bowl.

The Jayhawks went into the game a slight favorite but fell after a controversial decision by an official in the third quarter which led to three unanswered N.C. State touchdowns.

The play came in the early minutes of the third quarter with the score tied, 10-10. Facing a fourth down and six situation from its own 44-yard line, N.C. State punted to KU's Bruce Adams at the 19. In heavy traffic Adams called for a fair catch but fell to the ground as the ball glanced off of him. N.C. State's Ralph Stringer fell on the ball and the Wolfpack scored two plays later when fullback Stan Fritz went over right guard from eight yards out. Ron Sewell's extra point put N.C. State on top, 17-10.

Adams argued with officials that he was tripped on the fair catch but the officials refused to change their ruling.

The Wolfpack scored twice more before the Jayhawks' offense responded with a late fourth quarter scoring drive of its own. A drive of 80 yards in 17 plays culminated by a 12-yard touchdown run by Charles Young pushed N.C. State ahead, 24-10, with 4:50 remaining in the game. Less than a minute later N.C. State's Jim Henderson intercepted a David Jaynes pass in the flat and returned it 31 yards to put the Wolfpack out of reach, 31-10.

Jaynes, KU's All-America quarterback playing his last game for the Jayhawks, then led Kansas on a 74-yard drive in eight plays to cut the N.C. State margin to 13, 31-18. Fullback Robert Miller, playing the best game of his career for KU, scored the touchdown with a brilliant 12-yard burst through the middle with just 34 seconds remaining. Jaynes passed to Adams for a two-point conversion.

Jaynes finished the game with 24 completions in 38 attempts for 218 yards. All of those figures represented Liberty Bowl records and for his efforts he was named the game's outstanding offensive performer.

Miller finished the game with 104 yards rushing in 15 carries. He scored both KU touchdowns, one rushing and one receiving.

Mike Lemon, junior noseguard, led the Kansas defense with 11 tackles, seven of which were unassisted. Lemon was voted KU's outstanding defensive performer in the game.

BOWL SUMMARIES

1975 Sun Bowl

Dec. 26, 1975 -- El Paso, Texas
Pittsburgh 33, Kansas 19

Playing in its fifth bowl game ever and second in three years, Kansas dropped a 33-19 decision to Pittsburgh in the 41st annual Sun Bowl.

Behind three 100-plus yard rushing performances by All-American halfback Tony Dorsett (142), fullback Elliott Walker (123) and quarterback Robert Haygood (101), the Panthers built a 19-0 halftime lead and then held on in the second half to claim the triumph.

Walker opened the game's scoring with a brilliant 60-yard run on a pitchout from Haygood. The score came with 2:11 remaining in the initial quarter and after two earlier scoring threats by Kansas had faltered.

The failure on those two occasions seemingly gave Pittsburgh the momentum it needed to easily capture the verdict.

The first came on the game's third play when KU quarterback Nolan Cromwell kept for 13 yards around end then pitched to halfback Bill Campfield who fled untouched to the end zone for what appeared to be an 83-yard scoring play. But the officials ruled it was an illegal forward pitch and the ball was brought back. The drive subsequently stalled.

The second came just inside the six-minute mark in the first quarter when, facing a fourth-and-one at the Pitt 17, Cromwell appeared to easily make a first down with a sneak up the middle. But when the ball was spotted it wasn't even close, turning it over to the Panthers. Four plays later Walker scored from 60 yards out and the floodgates appeared open.

The Jayhawks did score first in the second half giving some hope of a comeback. Halfback Laverne Smith, who finished the day with 118 yards rushing, dazzled the Panther defense with a 55-yard burst up the middle with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter. That made it 19-7 but with 12:49 remaining in the game Walker scored again for Pittsburgh, this time from two yards out, to erase all KU hopes of a comeback.

Smith later added a 17-yard touchdown run which was followed by a 38-yard scoring pass from quarterback Scott McMichael to halfback Skip Sharp to close out the Kansas scoring.

Nearly 4,000 KU faithful made the trip to El Paso to help comprise the record turnout of 30,272.

1981 Hall Of Fame Bowl

Dec. 31, 1981 -- Birmingham, Ala.
Mississippi State 10, Kansas 0

It will be remembered by the Jayhawk fans as the 12-second game. That's the only way to describe Kansas' 10-0 loss to Mississippi State in the fifth annual Hall of Fame Bowl. Playing in its first postseason game in six years, Kansas players, coaches and fans watched as a nightmare unfolded before their eyes.

Witnessed by a crowd of 41,000 on a cool, damp afternoon at Birmingham's Legion Field, KU's Darren Green took the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards before accidentally colliding with a teammate. The result was a turnover and Mississippi State's ball on the KU 17.

On the ensuing play, MSU quarterback John Bond rolled right on an option play, turned upfield and went unscathed into the end zone for the first and last TD of the day. The extra point was good handing Mississippi State a shocking 7-0 lead. A mere dozen ticks of the clock had gone by and KU was trailing. Head coach Don Fambrough and his beleaguered troops could not believe what they had just viewed.

"I wake up in a cold sweat thinking what might happen if you fumble the opening kickoff and they go in," said a saddened Fambrough after the game. "That kickoff was the turning point. Our team was stung and intimidated."

True, the Jayhawks could never regroup. However, the defense, as had commonplace all season, stiffened, allowing just a field goal for the remainder of the game. The offense was a different story. Senior quarterback Steve Smith, subbing for the injured Frank Seurer, played his heart out but the gears would never churn. The Jayhawks' only real scoring threat was nullified by a strange penalty.

With a little under five minutes left in the game, KU's Bucky Scribner had punted from deep in KU territory when the Bulldogs' Cookie Jackson fumbled and Kansas recovered on the MSU 22. However, a flag had been thrown. The Jayhawks had clipped and expected to have the ball moved back 15 yards to the Bulldog 37. That wasn't the case. The officials changed their minds and decided the clip had occurred during the punt. Therefore the penalty was assessed from the line of scrimmage. Kansas had to punt again from its own 11. Again, too much adversity to overcome.

On this day of bad breaks, KU did have some bright spots. Freshman signal caller Mike Frederick, seeing his most playing time since putting on the Crimson and Blue, completed 7-of-9 passes for 110 yards and a near score. Kansas had the ball on the Bulldogs' two-yard line and no time left because of a preceding defensive penalty. But a short pass intended for Wayne Capers fell short and KU suffered its first shutout in six postseason games.

BOWL SUMMARIES

1992 Aloha Bowl

Dec. 25, 1992 -- Honolulu, Hawai'i
Kansas 23, Brigham Young 20

Playing in its first bowl game in 11 years, Kansas lost the coin toss to begin the game and, subsequently, surrendered a kickoff return touchdown to Brigham Young's Hema Heimuli on the first play of the game.

This auspicious start was much like the Jayhawks' last bowl appearance, 11 years earlier, when a Kansas turnover on the kickoff enabled Mississippi State to score a touchdown 12 seconds into a 10-0 win in the 1981 Hall of Fame Bowl. The rest of the game, however, unfolded quite nicely for Jayhawk fans. Just two plays from scrimmage later, Kansas receiver Matt Gay caught a lateral from quarterback Chip Hilleary and then hit a wide-open Rodney Harris for a 74-yard touchdown pass. After just 1:01, each team had scored a touchdown.

The Jayhawks continued to score in the first quarter. With BYU pinned deep in its own territory, junior lineman Chris Maumalanga burst through the Cougars' line to sack running back Jamal Willis in his own endzone for a safety and a 9-7 lead. Maumalanga was one of the many highlights for the Kansas defensive line, which sacked BYU quarterback Tom Young six times. Senior Dana Stubblefield led the Jayhawks with three sacks, three hurries and one tackle for loss. For his efforts, Stubblefield was named the game's most valuable player.

But Willis later gained revenge with a 29-yard touchdown romp with 10:16 left to play in the half. Following his score, BYU led, 14-9, and seemed to have halted the Jayhawks' momentum.

On the ensuing kickoff, another Kansas senior — running back Maurice Douglas — broke free for a 54-yard return that put the Jayhawks on the BYU 43. Kicker Dan Eichloff hammered a 41-yard field goal that capped the first-half scoring at 14-12. Brigham Young owned the third quarter, racking up 187 yards total offense and holding the ball for 9:50. Kansas, on the other hand, managed just 33 yards total offense but did limit the Cougars to six points as BYU carried a 20-12 lead into the final quarter. To start the final quarter, Hilleary engineered a six-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in his one-yard run and was capped by his two-point conversion that tied the game at 20. That drive was sustained by Hilleary's 48-yard completion to Harris, who finished with 142 yards on four catches.

On the following drive, the Jayhawk defense stopped the Cougars on three straight plays and BYU was forced to punt.

Kansas regained the ball on its own 21 yard line with just over 10 minutes to play. Hilleary then embarked the Jayhawks on a drive that would last nearly seven minutes and result in Dan Eichloff's 48-yard field goal that provided Kansas with the program's first bowl win in 31 years and just the second in school history.

BYU then mounted a drive late in the game, advancing as far as the KU 34-yard line. But senior safety Charley Bowen secured the Jayhawks' first bowl win in 31 years by picking off Young's pass at the Kansas 29-yard line with 2:11 to play.

A Christmas crowd of 42,933 paid to see the Jayhawks' win, and the game ranked among the top-watched bowl games on television in 1992-93.

1995 Aloha Bowl

Dec. 25, 1995 -- Honolulu, Hawai'i
Kansas 51, UCLA 30

Preparing for its second bowl game in four seasons and its eighth in school history, Kansas received a surprising announcement from head coach Glen Mason one week before the game and another equally as surprising just hours before kickoff.

Mason, who had accepted the head coaching position at the University of Georgia the day before the team departed for Hawaii, told his squad that he had reconsidered thaStadium. Inspired by Mason's decision, the Jayhawks set several bowl records in running over the favored UCLA Bruins to win their second-straight postseason game. Kansas struck first and often in taking a 17-0 lead into halftime. Senior quarterback Mark Williams capped an 11-play drive in which the Jayhawks drove 72 yards with a nine-yard pass to tight end Jim Moore for the touchdown. Williams set a school postseason record by completing his first 10 pass attempts, five of which came on the opening drive.

On their first drive of the second quarter it appeared the Jayhawk offense would stall when faced with a third-and-13 on UCLA's 49-yard line. While the UCLA defense was looking for a pass, junior running back June Henley took a draw play and outran the Bruin defenders for the touchdown. Henley carried the ball 13 times for 107 yards on the afternoon.

Jeff McCord booted a 27-yard field goal late in the second quarter to give the Jayhawks a 17-0 lead at halftime.

The Jayhawk defense stonewalled the Bruin offense yet again, this time forcing a punt from deep within their own territory. On the return it appeared as though KU's Ashaundai Smith had set a bowl record with a 76-yard return for a touchdown. However, Kansas was called for a block in the back on the return which limited the return to 43 yards. Five plays later Williams found Andre Carter open in the left corner of the end zone for the score. Carter's first career TD gave Kansas a 37-7 lead late in the third quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, UCLA quarterback Cade McNown found Kevin Jordan open in the end zone on a fourth-and-goal from the eight-yard line as the Bruins began to mount a comeback. On the ensuing kickoff, Vitto Clemente recovered a pooch kick on KU's 30. Five plays later, Abdul-Jabbar ran the ball into the end zone from five yards out, cutting the Jayhawk lead to 37-22.

Williams finished the day 18-for-27 passing for 288 yards including three touchdown strikes. He also had 11 carries for 48 yards including his fourth quarter touchdown run. Following the game he was named Kansas' Most Valuable Player of the game.

When the final gun sounded the Jayhawks had set a bowl record for most points scored by a team with their 51-30 victory over UCLA.

2003 Mazda Tangerine Bowl

Dec. 22, 2003 -- Orlando, Fla.
North Carolina State 56, Kansas 26

Kansas, playing in its first bowl game since 1995, fell to the North Carolina State Wolfpack, 56-26, in the Mazda Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla. The loss ended the Jayhawks' season with a record of 6-7, while the Wolfpack finished with an 8-5 mark on the year. NC State opened the scoring with a three-play, 64-yard drive which took just 1:02, capped off by a 45-yard touchdown pass from Tangerine Bowl MVP Philip Rivers to Richard Washington.

The Jayhawks answered with 10:41 left in the first quarter, as senior quarterback Bill Whittemore found freshman wide receiver Charles Gordon in the endzone on a 23-yard pass play. That touchdown tied Gordon with former Jayhawk Willie Vaughn for the most single-season touchdown receptions by a KU freshman (5).

KU responded with 4:01 remaining in the half, capping off a 10-play, 66-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal by Jerod Brooks to make the score 21-10, but NCSU closed out the first-half scoring with a three-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to McLendon to make the score 28-10 at the break.

The 'Hawks opened the scoring in the second half, as they marched down the field on a nine-play, 79-yard drive, culminating in an 11-yard touchdown pass from Whittemore to sophomore running back Clark Green. NC State answered back with two straight scores, however, on a 40-yard pass from Rivers to Brian Clark and 10-yard run by Davis, to take a 42-17 lead.

Kansas got back on the board with 3:42 left in the third quarter, as Johnny Beck nailed a 39-yard field goal to narrow the gap to 42-20, then a nine-yard Whittemore rush for a score made the score 42-26 with 14:18 left in the game, as the Jayhawks failed on the two-point conversion attempt.

KU's Whittemore finished the game connecting on 20-of-41 pass attempts for 243 yards and two touchdowns. He finished his career with 310 pass completions (sixth place all-time) on 568 attempts (seventh place) for 4,051 yards (sixth place). Whittemore also ended up in fourth place with 5,134 yards of total offense in his career, and set the KU career record for touchdowns responsible for with 50.

Clark Green led the Jayhawks' rushing attack with 14 carries for 87 yards, while Brandon Rideau led the Jayhawk receivers with a KU-bowl record nine catches for 109 yards on the night.

Rivers ended the game with a record setting performance, completing 37-of-45 pass attempts for 475 yards and five touchdowns.

Kansas saw its two-game bowl winning streak snapped.

2005 Fort Worth Bowl

Dec. 23, 2005 -- Fort Worth, Texas
Kansas 41, Houston 13

The University of Kansas closed out the 2005 season with a 42-13 victory over Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium. The win gave the Jayhawks their first bowl victory since winning the 1995 Aloha Bowl and the most wins (seven) in a decade.

Junior Brian Murph put Kansas (7-5) on the board early when he returned a Houston punt 85 yards for a touchdown. The punt return for a touchdown was the first of Murph's career and KU's longest of the season. Sophomore Scott Webb kicked the extra point to give the Jayhawks a 7-0 lead 10:26 into the game.

Houston (6-6) scored its first points of the game in the second quarter (14:22) when freshman Ben Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal. Kansas answered on the ensuing possession with a five-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a 13-yard shovel pass from senior Jason Swanson to junior Jon Cornish for a touchdown. Webb converted on the extra point to give KU a 14-3 lead.

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. Bell's extra point brought UH within four, and KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

The KU defense struck early in the second half when senior Theo Baines intercepted a Kolb pass and ran it 16 yards to KU's 30-yard line. Two plays later, Cornish took another shovel pass from Swanson 30 yards for his second touchdown of the day and 11th of the season. Webb's kick gave the Jayhawks a 21-10 advantage. After a 44-yard field goal by Houston's T.J. Lawrence, Swanson connected with senior Mark Simmons on a 32-yard pass to top off an 80-yard, 3:32 scoring drive. The TD and extra point (Webb) gave KU a 28-13 lead with 4:57 left in the third stanza.

KU pulled away when senior Charlton Keith picked off a Kolb pass at the Jayhawks' 14-yard line 2:37 into the fourth quarter and ran it in for a touchdown. The interception was Keith's first and marked his second career touchdown. Just over a minute later, Baines nabbed his second interception of the day, giving KU the ball on the UH 46-yard line. Murph scored his second touchdown of the day in the fourth quarter, a 48-yard pass from Swanson, to give the Jayhawks a 42-13 advantage.

Swanson threw for four touchdowns and had 19 completions on 29 attempts for 307 yards in the final game of his career. Swanson joined Kolb as the 2005 Fort Worth Bowl MVPs.

This listing of all-time lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Included are names -- in some instances first name and not actual name on roster -- along with position and years lettered of the more than 2,000 letterwinners who have played at the University of Kansas. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to the KU Media Relations Office.

CAPSULE HISTORY

1890 Sherman Scores First KU Touchdown

Kansas played its first official football game, losing to Baker University in Baldwin, Kan., 22-9. Right halfback A.F. Sherman scored KU's first touchdown on a punt return. An account of the game in the Weekly University Courier described Sherman's TD: "Hudson punted the ball down the field. Sherman managed to get the ball and made a phenomenal run for the first Kansas score ever made in football."

1899 Kansas has First Perfect Season

In his only season as head coach at Kansas, Fielding H. Yost led the Jayhawks to a 10-0 record, which represents one of just two perfect seasons in the 116 years of football competition. KU outscored its opponents 280-37 and averaged 28 points per game. Yost, who later gained fame as head coach at Michigan, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951.

1908 First Conference Championship

The Jayhawks finished with a 9-0 record, outscoring their opponents 131-20, and claimed the school's first conference championship by finishing with a 4-0 record in the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Conference.

1912 KU Defeats MU in First Homecoming

Playing its first Homecoming game before a crowd of 9,000 fans at McCook Field, KU downed rival Missouri, 12-3. Jayhawk coach Arthur Mosse used a new offensive alignment, known as the "Minnesota Shift" to confuse the Tigers that afternoon.

The Jayhawks of 1899 outscored their opponents 280-37, averaging 28 points per game, and posted six shutouts during the season. Fielding H. Yost (second row, third from right) served as head coach of the team.

1920 Phog Allen Builds a Football Stadium

Legendary KU basketball coach Phog Allen, in his only season as head football coach, rallied his team from a 20-0 halftime deficit to a 20-20 tie against Nebraska. Leading the team was senior quarterback Dutch Lonborg and halfback John Bunn, two individuals who were later inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame. The following Monday, students and faculty gathered to celebrate the comeback and more than $200,000 was pledged over a three-day period to build a concrete stadium to replace McCook Field, home for KU football since 1892.

1921 Jayhawks Open Play in Memorial Stadium

In the first game in Memorial Stadium, the Jayhawks defeated Kansas State, 21-7, in front of 5,160 fans. When the stadium opened, the east and west side stands were completed with a capacity of 22,000. The final game of the 1921 season saw KU down Missouri, 15-9, before 15,480 fans.

1931 KU Plays Haskell in First Home Night Game

On a Friday night, Oct. 2, Kansas hosted the Haskell Indians in the first-ever home night game in Jayhawk football history. The concept for a night game came from KU athletics director Phog Allen, who was able to transport portable lights that were borrowed from Haskell Stadium (also in Lawrence) and put them in place at Memorial Stadium. In front of 11,000 fans, Haskell surprised KU with a 6-0 victory.

1947 Evans & Schnellbacher: First All-Americans

Led by KU's first two All-America selections - halfback Ray Evans and end Otto Schnellbacher - the Jayhawks finished the season with an 8-1-2 record, tied for first in the conference and capped the season by playing Georgia Tech in the 1948 Orange Bowl. It marked KU's first appearance in a postseason bowl game. Among the victories that season for head coach George Sauer was an 86-6 win against South Dakota State, which represents the most points a KU team has ever scored in a single game. KU finished the year ranked 12th in the final Associated Press poll.

DR. JAMES NAISMITH INFLUENCED THE GAME OF FOOTBALL

The man credited with inventing the game of basketball - Dr. James Naismith (right) - also had a significant impact on the development of football. Naismith took a football and cut it lengthwise and placed it over his head to protect his ears as a football player at Springfield College. Thus, the first football helmet was invented.

Naismith was hired by the University of Kansas in 1898 as director of physical education on the recommendation of legendary football coach Amos Alonzo Stagg. He retired from active teaching in 1937 after 39 years as a member of the KU faculty.

CAPSULE HISTORY

1960 Jayhawks Upset a No. 1-Ranked Team

The Jayhawks faced one of the most challenging schedules in school history, facing three teams (Syracuse, Iowa and Missouri) ranked No. 1 in the nation. KU lost early in the season to Syracuse (14-7) and Iowa (21-7), but the elite backfield combination of John Hadl, Curtis McClinton, Doyle Schick and Bert Coan helped lead the Jayhawks to a 23-7 upset win versus then No. 1-ranked Missouri. The win was later forfeited when it was determined that Coan had received a free plane ride to the College Football All-Star Game in Chicago from a KU alum.

1963 Sayers Scampers for NCAA Record

Hall of Fame halfback Gale Sayers put his name in the college football record book by breaking loose on a 99-yard run against Nebraska in Lincoln, the longest run from scrimmage at that time in NCAA history. Only four other backs (including KU's Eric Vann) have accomplished a run of that length in the history of college football.

1967 A Coaching Staff of Excellence

After finishing with a 5-5 record in his first season as head coach in 1967, Pepper Rodgers assembled one of the greatest coaching staffs in KU history to begin the 1968 season. The staff included several assistants who would later achieve fame as head coaches, including John Cooper (Tulsa, Arizona State and Ohio State), Dick Tomey (Arizona), Terry Donahue (UCLA), the late Dave McLain (Wisconsin) and Don Fambrough (Kansas). The staff also included Doug Weaver (former athletics director at Georgia Tech and Michigan State) and Larry Travis (former athletics director at Kansas State and Western Carolina).

1968 Rodgers Takes KU to Orange Bowl

Under the guidance of coach Pepper Rodgers, KU came within five points of an undefeated season and a victory in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks tied for first in the Big Eight and finished 9-2 with losses to Oklahoma (27-23) and Penn State (15-14) in the Orange Bowl. Among the standouts were quarterback Bobby Douglass and fullback John Riggins.

1973 A Cardiac Season

The Jayhawks experienced a cardiac season with six games decided by two points or less -- the most games decided by that margin in NCAA history. KU finished the year with a 7-4-1 record, winning three of those close encounters, and played North Carolina State in the Liberty Bowl.

1975 Cromwell Guides KU to Upset of OU

Kansas defeated No. 2 Oklahoma in Norman, 23-3, to end the Sooners' 28-game winning streak and 37-game unbeaten string. Earlier in the season, quarterback Nolan Cromwell set a new NCAA record for rushing yards by quarterbacks with 294 yards on 28 carries in a 20-0 win against Oregon State.

1991 Tuxedo Tony Rushes for 396 Yards

Running back "Tuxedo" Tony Sands set an NCAA single-game record by rushing for 396 yards on 58 carries in a 53-29 win against Missouri in Lawrence. Sands was later named Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Eight Conference.

1992 First Bowl Win in 31 Years

Head coach Glen Mason guided KU to its first bowl win in 31 years as the Jayhawks defeated Brigham Young, 23-10, in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. Led by defensive linemen Dana Stubblefield and Gilbert Brown, along with quarterback Chip Hilleary, KU finished the season with an 8-4 record and placed third in the Big Eight Conference.

1995 Surprise Team of College Football

Picked to finish fifth in the Big Eight preseason polls, the Jayhawks were one of the surprise teams of college football with a 10-2 season and a win over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Along the way, KU defeated two ranked teams (Colorado and Oklahoma) on the road. The season ended with a twist of drama as head coach Glen Mason announced just prior to the bowl game that he was leaving after the UCLA encounter to become head coach at Georgia. Mason later changed his mind and stayed as head coach, informing his team on the morning of the Aloha Bowl. KU cruised to a 51-30 victory.

1997 Kansas Nabs 500th Victory

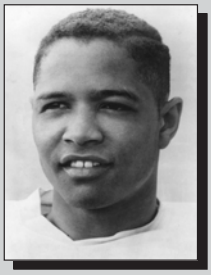

Terry Allen was on the sidelines for his second conference victory as head coach at KU and the school's 500th win in school history as the Jayhawks downed Oklahoma, 20-17.

2005 Mangino Leads KU to Second Bowl Game in Three Years

Mark Mangino became the first head coach in KU history to lead his team to two bowl games in a three-year span as the team faced Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl. KU clobbered the Cougars, 42-13, and quarterback Jason Swanson was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

Ed Harvey and Homer Floyd Broke Racial Barriers

Ed Harvey became the first African-American to play football at Kansas, earning his "K" letter as a member of the 1893 Jayhawk team. Harvey's parents were born into slavery and later escaped Quantrill's raid in Lawrence. They became share croppers and were able to put their three sons through college.

It was 62 years later when Homer Floyd, a standout at Massillon (Ohio) High School, broke the modern-day color barrier to play football at KU. Floyd enrolled at Kansas at the urging of his high school coach, Chuck Mather, who served as the Jayhawk head coach from 1954-57.

Floyd, a team captain in 1958, started all 30 games of his career (1955-58) on offense and defense. He led the Jayhawks in rushing yardage all three years and earned all-conference honors as a senior. Floyd later played for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and then served as executive director of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

For the 87th straight season Kansas will play home games in Memorial Stadium, which was built in 1921. The Jayhawks own a 223-206-16 all-time record in the facility, which is tied for the seventh-oldest college stadium in the nation.

Only six other division I schools – Cincinnati (1916), Georgia Tech (1913), Mississippi State (1915), Oklahoma State (1920), Washington (1920) and Wisconsin (1917) – currently play in older stadiums. Kansas, Stanford and Tennessee play in stadiums that were opened in 1921.

Prior to the completion of Memorial Stadium, KU played in old Central Park (1890-91) and McCook Field (1892-1920).

The 50,971-seat stadium is also host to the prestigious Kansas Relays, as well as community, musical and athletic events.

Memorial Stadium Chronology

The University of Kansas initiates the Million Dollar Drive, designed as a fund-raising campaign to secure funds for the construction of a memorial honoring the KU students who died during World War I.

1920
Phog Allen, in his only football season as head coach, rallies his team from a 20-0 halftime deficit to a 20-20 tie against Nebraska. The following Monday, students and faculty gather to celebrate the comeback and more than $200,000 is pledged over a three-day period to build a concrete stadium.

1921
In the first game in Memorial Stadium, KU defeated Kansas State, 21-7 in front of 5,160 fans on Oct. 3, 1921. When the stadium was completed, the east and west stands had a capacity of 22,000.

1922
On Nov. 11 just prior to the KU-Nebraska game, Memorial Stadium was formally dedicated.

1925
The east and west sections were extended to the south. On Oct. 3, a record crowd of 20,640 watched Kansas defeat Oklahoma A&M, 31-3.

1927
Phog Allen's dream of a horseshoe-type stadium turns into reality as the north bowl is completed and the stadium capacity is increased to 35,000.

1963
The west stands are expanded 26 rows, raising the capacity to 44,900. Also added is a new pressbox.

1965
The east stands are expanded and capacity grows to 51,500.

1970
The natural grass surface is replaced with artificial turf.

1978
A $1.8 million renovation of Memorial Stadium includes improvements to repair concrete, replacing the original wooden seats, adding new dressing rooms and additions to the pressbox. Also, a new artificial turf is added.

1987
The old south endzone bleachers are removed.

1990
A new AstroTurf field is installed in the summer prior to the start of the 1990 season.

1992
Permanent bleachers are added in the south endzone increasing the capacity to 50,250.

1997
Four standards of permanent lights added.

1999
The completion of a two-year, $26 million, renovation project which included extensive infrastructure repairs, new concourse with improved concession stands and restrooms, new home lockerroom, a new pressbox with 36 scholarship suites and expanded facilities for radio, television and print media and a new elevator. In addition, the 1999 season marked the debut of a new video board in the south endzone.

2000
Internet users were able to watch on a user-controlled web cam as the old AstroTurf was removed and a new AstroPlay surface was installed.

2007
Construction on a $31 million dollar Anderson Family Football Complex, which will house the football program, began with completion expected prior to the 2008 season.

KU HALL OF FAME

The University of Kansas Athletics Hall of Fame was established to formally recognize outstanding individuals and teams and to preserve the heritage and tradition of the University's athletics program.

The Hall of Fame is monitored by the Kansas Athletics Board, with Director of Athletics Lew Perkins serving as the executive officer.

Individuals are eligible for the Hall by achieving any of the following:

- ☑ Olympic Medalist
- ☑ U.S. Olympic Team Member
- ☑ World or American Record Holder
- ☑ NCAA Individual Champion
- ☑ Consensus First-Team All-America

Head coaches are eligible by coaching at NCAA Championship team.

Teams are eligible based on accomplishments for a particular season (i.e. Final Four, World Series or Bowl teams).

Special admittance is the other criteria considered. Some individuals and teams may be considered for bringing national distinction and honor to KU.

HALL OF ATHLETICS

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is a 26,000-square-foot museum adjacent to the east side of Allen Fieldhouse. The facility opened in January 2006 and is open year-round, allowing Jayhawk fans everywhere to experience the history and tradition of Kansas Athletics. The Hall honors KU's historic athletics programs, its coaches and student-athletes, past and present.

The Hall was made possible through more than $5 million in gifts and pledges from the children and grandchildren of the late Gilbert and Betty Booth, longtime Jayhawk fans and Lawrence residents. Booth family members who pledged their support to the Hall are David and Suzanne Booth of Los Angeles, and their children, Erin and Chandler; Mark and Lauren Bacich Booth of London, and their children, Miles, Coco and Cyrus; Mark and Jane Booth Berkley of Tescott, Kan., and their children and spouses, Stuart and Tina Berkley, Elizabeth Berkley and Melissa and Marco Ungaschik.

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is divided into several different exhibit areas including...

Game and The Gear: Highlights the 18 current athletic teams at KU and focuses on the recent athletes and achievements.

The Story of Sport: Takes you on a walk through the history of Kansas Athletics, beginning in 1879 with the introduction of baseball, up to the most recent events. This section also features two Olympic cases and a case dedicated to Wilt Chamberlain.

KANSAS Experience Wall: Highlights traditions of Kansas athletics, including Crimson and Blue, the Marching Band, Cheerleading, Fan Traditions, Rivalries and Media.

Hall of Champions: Contains many of the conference and national championship trophies, as well as the Hall of Fame wall.

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is a must-see for any Jayhawk fan or Kansas resident. There's also a beautiful gift shop located in the Hall.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Robert Hemenway
Chancellor

Dr. Robert Hemenway's life has been marked by accomplishment as an administrator, teacher and scholar.

As the 16th chancellor of the University of Kansas, he is the chief executive for the university, which spans the main campus in Lawrence, the Edwards Campus in Overland Park, the Medical Center campus in Kansas City, Kan., and its clinical branch in Wichita.

Leaders of other universities recognize Hemenway's administrative talents. In 2002, Hemenway was elected to chair the 18-member NCAA Division I board of directors, a position he held through January 2005. This appointment followed two terms as chairman of the board for the Big 12 Conference. From 2005-2006, he served on the NCAA Division I President's Task Force.

Since coming to KU in 1995, Hemenway has streamlined KU administration, made the university more student-centered, and overseen KU's growing national reputation. Under Hemenway's leadership, KU has set a goal to be recognized as a Top 25 public university. A growing list of nationally ranked academic programs and achievements of faculty and students support this goal. U.S. News & World Report ranks KU's academic reputation as 31st among public universities and 24 of KU's graduate programs 25th or higher among similar programs at public universities. KU's graduate programs in city management and urban policy and special education are ranked first in the nation.

KU has experienced record enrollments in each of the last three years with 29,624 students enrolled in Fall 2005. The student body continues to be highly qualified with an average ACT score well above the national mean. In addition, Kansas ranked 12th in the nation among public universities in 2005-06 for the number of freshman National Merit Scholars. KU students win several of the nation's most prestigious awards every year, including the Rhodes, Goldwater, Marshall, and Udall Scholarships. A selection of 10 Academic All-Americans during 2005-06 athletic season brought the number of KU student-athletes chosen for this honor since 1990 to 53.

Research funding at KU, a major source for Kansas economic development, has climbed steadily, reaching a record $281 million in fiscal year 2005. In May 2005, the KU Edwards Campus in Overland Park became the home of the fourth Confucius Institute in the United States, which will offer community-based Chinese language instruction to businesses, schools, government and non-profit organizations throughout the region. The university's number one priority is to achieve National Cancer Institute (NCI) designation for the KU Cancer Center, located at the KU Medical Center in Kansas City. This designation will enable superior cancer research and care for citizens in the state and region.

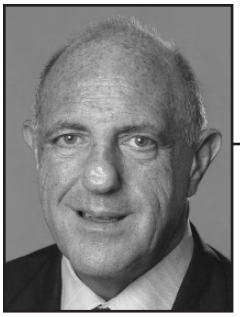

In Kansas, Hemenway has performed a complex balancing act, positioning KU as a major player in the movement to make the Greater Kansas City area a national center for life sciences and information technology, while at the same time forging stronger connections with the rural counties of western Kansas.

"To me, both Kansas and Kansas City are filled with opportunity," Hemenway says. "KU wants to be a better partner to the entire state."

Hemenway remains a committed scholar and teacher. He is known for his biography of African-American novelist Zora Neale Hurston, a "Best Books" pick by the New York Times in 1978 and a Quality Paperback Book Club selection in 1991. Hemenway is teaching a 7:30 a.m. undergraduate English course this fall.

The chancellor and his wife, Leah, live in the Outlook, the KU chancellor's official residence. Four of the chancellor's eight children are graduates of KU. The Hemenways have six grandchildren.

ADMINISTRATION

Lew Perkins

Director of Athletics

Lew Perkins has served as Director of Athletics at the University of Kansas since June 2003. He arrived at KU after achieving nationally recognized success as athletics director at the University of Connecticut. Kansas Athletics has experienced tremendous growth and success during Perkins' short tenure.

•In the spring of 2007, the student-athletes in KU's 18-sport program achieved unprecedented success in the classroom. KU student-athletes combined for a 3.02 aggregate GPA, the department's highest since these statistics have been kept. Nine teams posted 3.0 grade-point averages or better and 247 student-athletes on active rosters (61 percent) posted a 3.0 GPA or higher, including 36 with perfect 4.0 GPA's.

•The football team won the 2005 Fort Worth Bowl and has participated in a bowl game in two of the last four years;

•The men's basketball team reached the Elite Eight of the NCAA Championship twice – in 2004 and 2007 – and has won the last three Big 12 Conference regular-season championships, as well as the 2006 and 2007 Big 12 tournament titles;

•The women's volleyball team has appeared in three NCAA tournaments in the last four years, reaching the second round in 2003 and 2004;

•The women's soccer team has appeared in two NCAA tournaments, reaching the Sweet 16 in 2003;

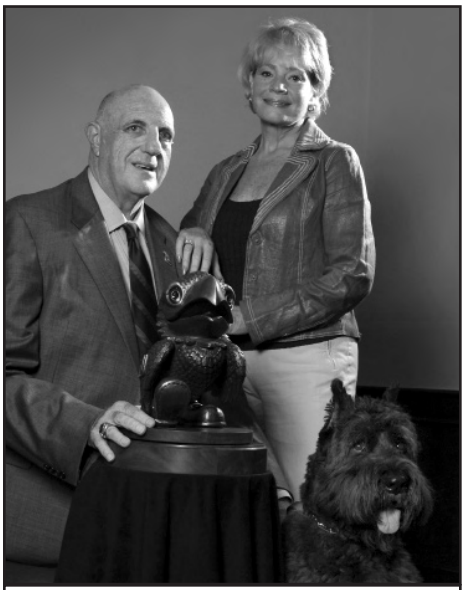

•The softball team won the Big 12 Championship in 2006 and reached the NCAA tournament for the second straight season;

•The baseball team won the Big 12 Championship in 2006 and reached the NCAA tournament for the first time since 1994;

•The women's basketball team reached the 2006 Women's National Invitation Tournament, its first postseason appearance since 2000;

•Fourteen KU student-athletes qualified for the 2007 NCAA outdoor track and field championships, the most under seven-year head coach Stanley Redwine. Eight of those individuals earned All-American accolades, the most individual outdoor All-Americans in KU history, excluding relay teams.

•Kansas Athletics fundraising has reached unprecedented levels. Under Perkins, KU's $27-million athletics budget has grown to more than $50 million. That fundraising, including landmark apparel and corporate-partner contracts, has resulted in greater services for KU coaches and student-athletes, and numerous upgrades in KU's athletics facilities:

•The Booth Family Hall of Athletics, which opened in January 2006 in Allen Fieldhouse, celebrates the tradition and history of Kansas Athletics;

•The spirit and aura of Allen Fieldhouse has been enhanced by renovations that were completed prior to the 2005-06 season, include freshly painted bleachers, new windows, new lighting and sound systems, and a new center-hung scoreboard, which includes a large, state-of-the-art video board;

•The baseball complex now includes an indoor hitting facility and a new scoreboard, complete with a large, state-of-the-art video board;

•With funding secured, construction has begun on the Anderson Family Football Complex and practice fields adjacent to Memorial Stadium;

•A new Aquatic Rehabilitation Center houses three Hydroworx pools that enhance rehabilitation efforts under the guidance and supervision of the University of Kansas Sports Medicine Staff.

Perkins has served on many NCAA, Big 12 Conference and other prestigious committees. His current NCAA obligations include the Basketball Issues Committee. At the conference level, Perkins serves as a member of the Big 12 Television Committee, and has served as Chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors. In spring 2005 he was named to the Board of Directors of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Additionally, he is a member of the Gatorade Board of Directors.

At Connecticut (1990-2003), Perkins was instrumental in guiding UConn athletics to impressive growth – athletically, academically and financially. His leadership influenced six NCAA Division I National Championships.

He was rewarded in 2000 as the inaugural winner of the National Athletic Director of the Year Award as selected by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal, in conjunction with the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

A native of Chelsea, Mass., Perkins was inducted into his high school Hall of Fame in 1989. A highly recruited basketball player, he played at the University of Iowa (1965-67) for Hall of Fame coach and KU graduate Ralph Miller. Perkins earned his undergraduate degree there in 1967.

Perkins served as Director of Athletics (1969-80) and head basketball coach (1969-79) at the University of South Carolina Aiken as that institution grew from a junior college to a four-year institution. He received his master's degree in education (1975) from the University of South Carolina. Perkins delivered the commencement address and received an honorary Doctor of Education degree at USC Aiken in May 2005.

Perkins also has served as athletics director at the University of Maryland and Wichita State University, and associate director of athletics at the University of Pennsylvania.

Perkins is married to the former Gwen Flaum. Like Lew, Gwen earned an undergraduate degree from Iowa and a master's degree in education from the University of South Carolina. They have two daughters (Amy, husband Brandon Macneill; Holly, husband Tom Halligan) and two granddaughters (Caroline and Alexandra Macneill).

WILLIAMS EDUCATIONAL FUND

Kansas Athletics uses a team approach to meet its objective of providing scholarships, facilities and financial resources that will enhance the performance of student-athletes in the classroom and on the fields of competition. The Williams Educational Fund, KU Athletics Development and the KU Endowment Association have joined together to strategically raise funds for student-athlete scholarship support and athletic facilities and to provide unparalleled customer service to KU fans.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS WILLIAMS EDUCATIONAL FUND

Regarded as the core of the annual giving program, the Williams Educational Fund is made up of alumni, friends and fans of Kansas Athletics. In 1949, the Outland Club was originated by Dick, Skipper and Odd Williams. The Williams family was responsible for raising over $2 million dollars for athletics scholarships between 1949 and 1973. In 1973, the Outland Club became known as the Williams Educational Fund to honor the Williams family for its commitment to Kansas Athletics.

This year, the Williams Fund is composed of 5,000 members who contribute annually over $10 million to pay the scholarship expenses of KU's student-athletes. This generous financial commitment enables our athletics department to provide necessary funding for athletics scholarships and academic support for the 500-plus student-athletes at KU.

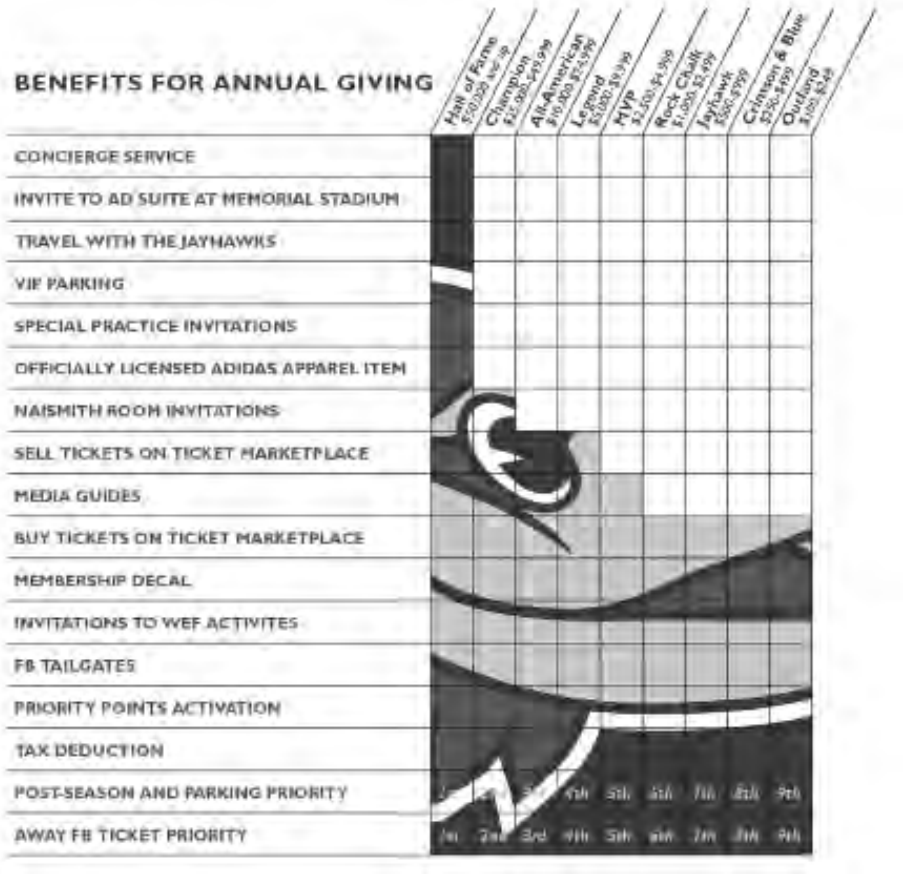

As a Williams Fund member you will enjoy unique benefits, including priority seating and parking for football and basketball. In addition, you will feel the fellowship and pride that goes along with supporting a KU student-athlete with a quality education and the opportunity to compete on a national level. Private support from individual donors is vital to athletic success.

Williams Fund members are regarded as part of the team and receive invitations to a variety of events and functions featuring KU coaches and administrators. Members are also recognized in Kansas Athletics publications.

If you would like more information about how you can become a member of the Williams Educational Fund or to make a major gift to support Kansas Athletics, please call 785-864-3946 or e-mail us at wef@ku.edu.
